6. Specific competences and learning outcomes

Professional competences	CP2. Reads musical scores. Reads musical scores during rehearsals and live performances. Learning Outcomes 2.1. Knowledge LO 2.1.1. The graduate knows musical symbols within the notation systems of various stylistic periods (Baroque, contemporary, etc.). LO 2.1.2. The graduate easily reads complex scores in real time, applying knowledge of music theory and solfège. LO 2.1.3. The graduate correlates musical notation with instrumental elements. 2.2. Skills L.O.2.2.1. The graduate develops advanced score-reading skills, ensuring a deep understanding of musical notation and the composer's instructions. L.O.2.2.2. The graduate masters sight-reading, accurately following rhythm, intonation, interpretation, and stylistic context. 2.3. Responsibility and Autonomy LO 2.3.1. The graduate performs at rehearsals and concerts by carefully following the score, ensuring proper integration into the ensemble or orchestra. L.O.2.3.2. The graduate assumes their interpretative vision following the reading of the musical score. L.O.2.3.3. The graduate uses musical scores responsibly, respecting dynamic markings and interpretative indications provided by the composer. CP3. Performs live. Performs in front of a live audience. Learning Outcomes 3.1. Knowledge L.O.3.1.1. The graduate has an in-depth understanding of the requirements of live performance and the modalities of stage presentation. L.O.3.1.2. The graduate demonstrates knowledge of how to communicate artistic expression on stage, including the use of nonverbal language. L.O.3.1.3. The graduate masters techniques for managing individual study in order to overcome stage fright. 3.2. Skills L.O.3.2.1. The graduate demonstrates advanced live performance skills, captivating audiences and conveying emotion through music. L.O.3.2.2. The graduate easily adapts to various live performance situations, successfully managing challenges and the unpredictability of artistic settings. L.O.3.2.3. The graduate masters stage-related emotions, effectively managing stage fright in front of an audience. 3.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.3.3.1. The graduate presents personal musical interpretations during recitals and performances, captivating the audience and conveying emotion. L.O.3.3.2. The graduate confidently expresses personal artistic messages, providing memorable artistic experiences. L.O.3.3.3. The graduate demonstrates a strong and charismatic stage presence, creating emotional connections with the audience.

Professional competences	CP4. Strives for excellence in musical performance. Continuously engages in perfecting their own instrumental interpretation. Learning Outcomes 4.1. Knowledge L.O.4.1.1. The graduate collaborates with other performers to produce comparative musical interpretations. L.O.4.1.2. The graduate analyzes and understands various artistic approaches and perspectives, developing their own interpretative vision. 4.2. Skills L.O.4.2.1. The graduate participates in music competitions and contests to demonstrate skills and gain professional recognition. L.O.4.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to grow as an artist by seeking feedback and guidance from music experts. L.O.4.2.3. The graduate develops abilities to convey emotions and artistic messages through consistent participation in concerts and auditions. 4.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.4.3.1. The graduate assumes responsibility for choosing the repertoire they perform on stage. L.O.4.3.2. The graduate adapts to diverse musical and artistic contexts by applying knowledge of musical styles, forms, and traditions to shape their own interpretative vision. L.O.4.3.3. The graduate studies responsibly, respecting all musical and technical requirements to refine their musical interpretation. CP5. Analyzes their own artistic performance. Understands, analyzes, and describes their own performance. Contextualizes their work within one or multiple styles, trends, and evolutions. Evaluates their own work during rehearsals and performances. Learning Outcomes 5.1. Knowledge L.O.5.1.1. The graduate masters knowledge related to the characteristics of various musical styles and applies them in their own interpretation. L.O.5.1.2. The graduate identifies different technical and interpretative approaches used by performers and formulates personal musical perspectives. 5.2. Skills L.O.5.2.1. The graduate critically understands and analyzes their own performance, identifying strengths and areas for improvement. L.O.5.2.2. The graduate reflects on and develops self-evaluation skills, learning from past artistic experiences to progress as a performing musician. L.O.5.2.3. The graduate explores various recording and analysis techniques to obtain an objective perspective on the quality and expressiveness of their performance. 5.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L..5.3.1. The graduate constantly consults and studies relevant informational sources within the musical-artistic field in order to continually refine their technical and interpretative outlook. L.O.5.3.2. The graduate continuously explores new, efficient study strategies to increase performance level.

Professional competences	CP6. Identifies characteristics of music. Identifies elementary, structural, and stylistic characteristics of music from different periods and cultures. Learning Outcomes 6.1. Knowledge L.O.6.1.1. The graduate comparatively evaluates musical excerpts belonging to different genres, styles, or expressive contexts, supporting observations with concrete elements of musical discourse. L.O.6.1.2. The graduate identifies and describes defining aspects of musical parameters, highlighting their role in the construction and interpretation of a musical work. L.O.6.1.3. The graduate classifies musical works based on the recognition of defining traits of genres and stylistic features of different musical eras. 6.2. Skills L.O.6.2.1. The graduate correlates the musical text with its sonic configuration. L.O.6.2.2. The graduate establishes connections between writing techniques and musical morphology, syntax, and architecture. L.O.6.2.3. The graduate evaluates the expressiveness of a musical excerpt by rigorously applying specific musical criteria such as phrasing, articulation, dynamics, and timbre. 6.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.6.3.1. The graduate actively participates in diverse artistic and social environments, using expertise in musical styles, forms, and traditions to refine and sustain artistic practices. L.O.6.3.2. The graduate adopts a responsible attitude when formulating and justifying individual viewpoints in musical analysis, supporting them with rigorous argumentation.

Transversal Competences	CT1. Thinks creatively Learning Outcomes 1.1. Knowledge L.O.1.1.1. The graduate recognizes the importance of creativity in the development and expression of artistic practice. L.O.1.1.2. The graduate identifies and applies various methods to optimize the creative process in artistic contexts. 1.2. Skills L.O.1.2.1. The graduate can apply conceptual working methods and strategies, focusing on understanding and developing the theoretical framework of musical principles. L.O.1.2.2. The graduate is able to design, improvise and implement creative and innovative approaches for solving complex problems. 1.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.1.3.1. The graduate develops innovative concepts by generating new ideas and creatively integrating existing ones. L.O.1.3.2. The graduate supports the manifestation of creative thinking by encouraging originality, flexibility, and the ability to generate new ideas.

Transversal Competences	CT2. Copes with stress Learning Outcomes 2.1. Knowledge L.O.2.1.1. The graduate identifies and uses appropriate stress-management techniques to maintain emotional balance in demanding situations. L.O.2.1.2. The graduate understands the essential role of emotional self-regulation and the need for adaptive strategies to manage affective experiences effectively. 2.2. Skills L.O.2.2.1. The graduate manages challenges, disruptions, and changes and recovers from setbacks and adversity. L.O.2.2.2. The graduate identifies difficult moments and shows readiness and ability to accept and manage challenges as opportunities for personal and professional growth. 2.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.2.3.1. The graduate demonstrates responsibility and maturity in handling high-pressure situations. L.O.2.3.2. The graduate recognizes when stress may become overwhelming and prepares to address such moments with strategy and resilience. CT3. Works in teams Learning Outcomes 3.1. Knowledge L.O.3.1.1. The graduate understands and applies appropriate methods of collaboration and communication to contribute constructively to collective activity. L.O.3.1.2. The graduate knows models of support and collaboration with colleagues within group activities, contributing to the achievement of shared goals. 3.2. Skills L.O.3.2.1. The graduate is able to work confidently within a group, with each member fulfilling their role for the benefit of the whole. L.O.3.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to support team members through effective collaboration within a shared project. 3.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.3.3.1. The graduate shows openness and responsibility in adopting innovative ideas that strengthen and support team success. L.O.3.3.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to recognize and take responsibility for failure in crisis situations, promoting transparency and cooperation within the team. CT4. Appreciates the diversity of cultural and artistic expressions Learning Outcomes 4.1. Knowledge L.O.4.1.1. The graduate recognizes and understands the diversity of cultural expression in various socio-cultural contexts. L.O.4.1.2. The graduate possesses aesthetic sensitivity and the ability to perceive and appreciate artistic expressions. 4.2. Skills LO 4.2.1. The graduate demonstrates the ability to critically evaluate and interpret various forms of artistic expression. LO 4.2.2. The graduate shows aesthetic sensitivity, interest, and openness toward artistic expressions from diverse cultural backgrounds.

Transversal Competences	4.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.4.3.1. The graduate responsibly expresses and justifies opinions and evaluations related to various artistic cultures, assuming responsibility for the judgments made. L.O.4.3.2. The graduate produces individual interpretations based on the understanding and appreciation of cultural differences.

7. Course objectives (resulting from the specific competences to be acquired)

7.1 General course objective	- The acquisition of a body of knowledge aimed at achieving professional performance through personal and professional development, the formation and development of the competencies required to attain professional excellence in the field of instrumental music, and the development of new professional competencies in accordance with the evolution of contemporary musical society and labor market requirements. - Knowledge, selection, and application of methods, theories, and applied concepts for the accurate determination of the theory–practice relationship, with a view to achieving excellence in musical performance. - The application and transfer of conceptual, technical, and interpretative skills, as well as problem-solving abilities specific to the field of Music, in order to achieve high-level performance outcomes. - The development of advanced capacities for conducting research activities, project management, research program management, education, and professional training. - The application of fundamental concepts, theories, and methods of the field and study program in order to formulate competitive professional approaches; critical evaluation of scientific research results within the chosen specialization and the creative application of research methods.
7.2 Specific objectives	- The development of the capacity to synthesize and interpret recitals, concerts, to address fundamental issues of instrumental techniques, and to materialize these skills in high-performance interpretations presented before an audience. - Independent analysis of issues specific to instrumental techniques. - The enhancement of communication skills and the demonstration of selected technical and expressive solutions.

8. Content

8.1 Course	Teaching methods	Number of hours	Remarks
Issues of instrumental technique; problems of decoding and rendering the musical text; issues of interpretative stylistics	Interactive lecture, teaching, demonstration, explanation	4	Systematization and clarification of the main issues of instrumental technique according to individual technical abilities
Issues of interpretative stylistics and advanced performance techniques	Interactive lecture, score analysis,	6	Understanding the historical context and

	teaching, demonstration, explanation		the evolution of the instrument; development of advanced performance techniques
Issues of expressive and stylistic interpretation; self-evaluation	Interactive lecture, teaching, demonstration, explanation	4	Development of expressive and stylistic performance skills

Semester Repertoire:

9. Correlation of course content with the demands of the labour market (epistemic communities, professional associations, potential employers in the field of study)

- Epistemic communities: Consultation with experts in musicology and music pedagogy to ensure the relevance and currency of the course content.

- Professional associations: Collaboration with musicians' associations to integrate professional standards into the curriculum.

- Employers: Dialogue with representatives of orchestras and musical institutions to align the developed competencies with labor market requirements.

10. Evaluation

Activity type	10.1 Evaluation criteria	10.2 Evaluation methods	10.3 Percentage of the final grade
10.4 Course	- Minimum quantitative standard: 3 works differing in style and one study - Technical and artistic performance in interpretation - Individual progress throughout the semester - Active participation in lectures and laboratory sessions	- Practical examinations (recitals, solo and ensemble performances) - Continuous assessment (periodic feedback, self-evaluation) - Memorized performance of selected works of varying difficulty, in accordance with university standards	50%

10.5 Seminar/ laboratory/ project	– Minimum quantitative standard: 3 works differing in style and one study - Receptiveness, engagement, and individual contribution during the laboratory; musicality; sense of rhythm; aesthetic/artistic sensitivity; acquired and applied theoretical knowledge; creativity		50%
10.6 Minimal performance standard
- Memorized performance of the assigned works during the semester - Achievement of a passing grade (5)

This course outline was certified in the Department Board meeting on 16/09/2005 and approved in the Faculty Board meeting on 16/09/2005.

Skills L.O.4.2.1. The graduate participates in music competitions and contests to demonstrate skills and gain professional recognition. L.O.4.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to grow as an artist by seeking feedback and guidance from music experts. L.O.4.2.3. The graduate develops abilities to convey emotions and artistic messages through consistent participation in concerts and auditions. 4.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.4.3.1. The graduate assumes responsibility for choosing the repertoire they perform on stage. L.O.4.3.2. The graduate adapts to diverse musical and artistic contexts by applying knowledge of musical styles, forms, and traditions to shape their own interpretative vision. L.O.4.3.3. The graduate studies responsibly, respecting all musical and technical requirements to refine their musical interpretation. CP5. Analyzes their own artistic performance. Understands, analyzes, and describes their own performance. Contextualizes their work within one or multiple styles, trends, and evolutions. Evaluates their own work during rehearsals and performances. Learning Outcomes 5.1. Knowledge L.O.5.1.1. The graduate masters knowledge related to the characteristics of various musical styles and applies them in their own interpretation. L.O.5.1.2. The graduate identifies different technical and interpretative approaches used by performers and formulates personal musical perspectives. 5.2. Skills L.O.5.2.1. The graduate critically understands and analyzes their own performance, identifying strengths and areas for improvement. L.O.5.2.2. The graduate reflects on and develops self-evaluation skills, learning from past artistic experiences to progress as a performing musician. L.O.5.2.3. The graduate explores various recording and analysis techniques to obtain an objective perspective on the quality and expressiveness of their performance. 5.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L..5.3.1. The graduate constantly consults and studies relevant informational sources within the musical-artistic field in order to continually refine their technical and interpretative outlook. L.O.5.3.2. The graduate continuously explores new, efficient study strategies to increase performance level.

Professional competences	CP6. Identifies characteristics of music. Identifies elementary, structural, and stylistic characteristics of music from different periods and cultures. Learning Outcomes 6.1. Knowledge L.O.6.1.1. The graduate comparatively evaluates musical excerpts belonging to different genres, styles, or expressive contexts, supporting observations with concrete elements of musical discourse. L.O.6.1.2. The graduate identifies and describes defining aspects of musical parameters, highlighting their role in the construction and interpretation of a musical work. L.O.6.1.3. The graduate classifies musical works based on the recognition of defining traits of genres and stylistic features of different musical eras. 6.2. Skills L.O.6.2.1. The graduate correlates the musical text with its sonic configuration. L.O.6.2.2. The graduate establishes connections between writing techniques and musical morphology, syntax, and architecture. L.O.6.2.3. The graduate evaluates the expressiveness of a musical excerpt by rigorously applying specific musical criteria such as phrasing, articulation, dynamics, and timbre. 6.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.6.3.1. The graduate actively participates in diverse artistic and social environments, using expertise in musical styles, forms, and traditions to refine and sustain artistic practices. L.O.6.3.2. The graduate adopts a responsible attitude when formulating and justifying individual viewpoints in musical analysis, supporting them with rigorous argumentation.

Transversal Competences	CT1. Thinks creatively Learning Outcomes 1.1. Knowledge L.O.1.1.1. The graduate recognizes the importance of creativity in the development and expression of artistic practice. L.O.1.1.2. The graduate identifies and applies various methods to optimize the creative process in artistic contexts. 1.2. Skills L.O.1.2.1. The graduate can apply conceptual working methods and strategies, focusing on understanding and developing the theoretical framework of musical principles. L.O.1.2.2. The graduate is able to design, improvise and implement creative and innovative approaches for solving complex problems. 1.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.1.3.1. The graduate develops innovative concepts by generating new ideas and creatively integrating existing ones. L.O.1.3.2. The graduate supports the manifestation of creative thinking by encouraging originality, flexibility, and the ability to generate new ideas.

Transversal Competences	CT2. Copes with stress Learning Outcomes 2.1. Knowledge L.O.2.1.1. The graduate identifies and uses appropriate stress-management techniques to maintain emotional balance in demanding situations. L.O.2.1.2. The graduate understands the essential role of emotional self-regulation and the need for adaptive strategies to manage affective experiences effectively. 2.2. Skills L.O.2.2.1. The graduate manages challenges, disruptions, and changes and recovers from setbacks and adversity. L.O.2.2.2. The graduate identifies difficult moments and shows readiness and ability to accept and manage challenges as opportunities for personal and professional growth. 2.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.2.3.1. The graduate demonstrates responsibility and maturity in handling high-pressure situations. L.O.2.3.2. The graduate recognizes when stress may become overwhelming and prepares to address such moments with strategy and resilience. CT3. Works in teams Learning Outcomes 3.1. Knowledge L.O.3.1.1. The graduate understands and applies appropriate methods of collaboration and communication to contribute constructively to collective activity. L.O.3.1.2. The graduate knows models of support and collaboration with colleagues within group activities, contributing to the achievement of shared goals. 3.2. Skills L.O.3.2.1. The graduate is able to work confidently within a group, with each member fulfilling their role for the benefit of the whole. L.O.3.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to support team members through effective collaboration within a shared project. 3.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.3.3.1. The graduate shows openness and responsibility in adopting innovative ideas that strengthen and support team success. L.O.3.3.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to recognize and take responsibility for failure in crisis situations, promoting transparency and cooperation within the team. CT4. Appreciates the diversity of cultural and artistic expressions Learning Outcomes 4.1. Knowledge L.O.4.1.1. The graduate recognizes and understands the diversity of cultural expression in various socio-cultural contexts. L.O.4.1.2. The graduate possesses aesthetic sensitivity and the ability to perceive and appreciate artistic expressions. 4.2. Skills LO 4.2.1. The graduate demonstrates the ability to critically evaluate and interpret various forms of artistic expression. LO 4.2.2. The graduate shows aesthetic sensitivity, interest, and openness toward artistic expressions from diverse cultural backgrounds.

Transversal Competences	4.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.4.3.1. The graduate responsibly expresses and justifies opinions and evaluations related to various artistic cultures, assuming responsibility for the judgments made. L.O.4.3.2. The graduate produces individual interpretations based on the understanding and appreciation of cultural differences.

Responsibility and Autonomy LO 2.3.1. The graduate performs at rehearsals and concerts by carefully following the score, ensuring proper integration into the ensemble or orchestra. L.O.2.3.2. The graduate assumes their interpretative vision following the reading of the musical score. L.O.2.3.3. The graduate uses musical scores responsibly, respecting dynamic markings and interpretative indications provided by the composer. CP3. Performs live. Performs in front of a live audience. Learning Outcomes 3.1. Knowledge L.O.3.1.1. The graduate has an in-depth understanding of the requirements of live performance and the modalities of stage presentation. L.O.3.1.2. The graduate demonstrates knowledge of how to communicate artistic expression on stage, including the use of nonverbal language. L.O.3.1.3. The graduate masters techniques for managing individual study in order to overcome stage fright. 3.2. Skills L.O.3.2.1. The graduate demonstrates advanced live performance skills, captivating audiences and conveying emotion through music. L.O.3.2.2. The graduate easily adapts to various live performance situations, successfully managing challenges and the unpredictability of artistic settings. L.O.3.2.3. The graduate masters stage-related emotions, effectively managing stage fright in front of an audience. 3.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.3.3.1. The graduate presents personal musical interpretations during recitals and performances, captivating the audience and conveying emotion. L.O.3.3.2. The graduate confidently expresses personal artistic messages, providing memorable artistic experiences. L.O.3.3.3. The graduate demonstrates a strong and charismatic stage presence, creating emotional connections with the audience.

Professional competences	CP4. Strives for excellence in musical performance. Continuously engages in perfecting their own instrumental interpretation. Learning Outcomes 4.1. Knowledge L.O.4.1.1. The graduate collaborates with other performers to produce comparative musical interpretations. L.O.4.1.2. The graduate analyzes and understands various artistic approaches and perspectives, developing their own interpretative vision. 4.2. Skills L.O.4.2.1. The graduate participates in music competitions and contests to demonstrate skills and gain professional recognition. L.O.4.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to grow as an artist by seeking feedback and guidance from music experts. L.O.4.2.3. The graduate develops abilities to convey emotions and artistic messages through consistent participation in concerts and auditions. 4.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.4.3.1. The graduate assumes responsibility for choosing the repertoire they perform on stage. L.O.4.3.2. The graduate adapts to diverse musical and artistic contexts by applying knowledge of musical styles, forms, and traditions to shape their own interpretative vision. L.O.4.3.3. The graduate studies responsibly, respecting all musical and technical requirements to refine their musical interpretation. CP5. Analyzes their own artistic performance. Understands, analyzes, and describes their own performance. Contextualizes their work within one or multiple styles, trends, and evolutions. Evaluates their own work during rehearsals and performances. Learning Outcomes 5.1. Knowledge L.O.5.1.1. The graduate masters knowledge related to the characteristics of various musical styles and applies them in their own interpretation. L.O.5.1.2. The graduate identifies different technical and interpretative approaches used by performers and formulates personal musical perspectives. 5.2. Skills L.O.5.2.1. The graduate critically understands and analyzes their own performance, identifying strengths and areas for improvement. L.O.5.2.2. The graduate reflects on and develops self-evaluation skills, learning from past artistic experiences to progress as a performing musician. L.O.5.2.3. The graduate explores various recording and analysis techniques to obtain an objective perspective on the quality and expressiveness of their performance. 5.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L..5.3.1. The graduate constantly consults and studies relevant informational sources within the musical-artistic field in order to continually refine their technical and interpretative outlook. L.O.5.3.2. The graduate continuously explores new, efficient study strategies to increase performance level.

Professional competences	CP6. Identifies characteristics of music. Identifies elementary, structural, and stylistic characteristics of music from different periods and cultures. Learning Outcomes 6.1. Knowledge L.O.6.1.1. The graduate comparatively evaluates musical excerpts belonging to different genres, styles, or expressive contexts, supporting observations with concrete elements of musical discourse. L.O.6.1.2. The graduate identifies and describes defining aspects of musical parameters, highlighting their role in the construction and interpretation of a musical work. L.O.6.1.3. The graduate classifies musical works based on the recognition of defining traits of genres and stylistic features of different musical eras. 6.2. Skills L.O.6.2.1. The graduate correlates the musical text with its sonic configuration. L.O.6.2.2. The graduate establishes connections between writing techniques and musical morphology, syntax, and architecture. L.O.6.2.3. The graduate evaluates the expressiveness of a musical excerpt by rigorously applying specific musical criteria such as phrasing, articulation, dynamics, and timbre. 6.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.6.3.1. The graduate actively participates in diverse artistic and social environments, using expertise in musical styles, forms, and traditions to refine and sustain artistic practices. L.O.6.3.2. The graduate adopts a responsible attitude when formulating and justifying individual viewpoints in musical analysis, supporting them with rigorous argumentation.

Transversal Competences	CT1. Thinks creatively Learning Outcomes 1.1. Knowledge L.O.1.1.1. The graduate recognizes the importance of creativity in the development and expression of artistic practice. L.O.1.1.2. The graduate identifies and applies various methods to optimize the creative process in artistic contexts. 1.2. Skills L.O.1.2.1. The graduate can apply conceptual working methods and strategies, focusing on understanding and developing the theoretical framework of musical principles. L.O.1.2.2. The graduate is able to design, improvise and implement creative and innovative approaches for solving complex problems. 1.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.1.3.1. The graduate develops innovative concepts by generating new ideas and creatively integrating existing ones. L.O.1.3.2. The graduate supports the manifestation of creative thinking by encouraging originality, flexibility, and the ability to generate new ideas.

Transversal Competences	CT2. Copes with stress Learning Outcomes 2.1. Knowledge L.O.2.1.1. The graduate identifies and uses appropriate stress-management techniques to maintain emotional balance in demanding situations. L.O.2.1.2. The graduate understands the essential role of emotional self-regulation and the need for adaptive strategies to manage affective experiences effectively. 2.2. Skills L.O.2.2.1. The graduate manages challenges, disruptions, and changes and recovers from setbacks and adversity. L.O.2.2.2. The graduate identifies difficult moments and shows readiness and ability to accept and manage challenges as opportunities for personal and professional growth. 2.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.2.3.1. The graduate demonstrates responsibility and maturity in handling high-pressure situations. L.O.2.3.2. The graduate recognizes when stress may become overwhelming and prepares to address such moments with strategy and resilience. CT3. Works in teams Learning Outcomes 3.1. Knowledge L.O.3.1.1. The graduate understands and applies appropriate methods of collaboration and communication to contribute constructively to collective activity. L.O.3.1.2. The graduate knows models of support and collaboration with colleagues within group activities, contributing to the achievement of shared goals. 3.2. Skills L.O.3.2.1. The graduate is able to work confidently within a group, with each member fulfilling their role for the benefit of the whole. L.O.3.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to support team members through effective collaboration within a shared project. 3.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.3.3.1. The graduate shows openness and responsibility in adopting innovative ideas that strengthen and support team success. L.O.3.3.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to recognize and take responsibility for failure in crisis situations, promoting transparency and cooperation within the team. CT4. Appreciates the diversity of cultural and artistic expressions Learning Outcomes 4.1. Knowledge L.O.4.1.1. The graduate recognizes and understands the diversity of cultural expression in various socio-cultural contexts. L.O.4.1.2. The graduate possesses aesthetic sensitivity and the ability to perceive and appreciate artistic expressions. 4.2. Skills LO 4.2.1. The graduate demonstrates the ability to critically evaluate and interpret various forms of artistic expression. LO 4.2.2. The graduate shows aesthetic sensitivity, interest, and openness toward artistic expressions from diverse cultural backgrounds.

Transversal Competences	4.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.4.3.1. The graduate responsibly expresses and justifies opinions and evaluations related to various artistic cultures, assuming responsibility for the judgments made. L.O.4.3.2. The graduate produces individual interpretations based on the understanding and appreciation of cultural differences.

7. Course objectives (resulting from the specific competences to be acquired)

7.1 General course objective	- The acquisition of a body of knowledge aimed at achieving professional performance through personal and professional development, the formation and development of the competencies required to attain professional excellence in the field of instrumental music, and the development of new professional competencies in accordance with the evolution of contemporary musical society and labor market requirements. - Knowledge, selection, and application of methods, theories, and applied concepts for the accurate determination of the theory–practice relationship, with a view to achieving excellence in musical performance. - The application and transfer of conceptual, technical, and interpretative skills, as well as problem-solving abilities specific to the field of Music, in order to achieve high-level performance outcomes. - The development of advanced capacities for conducting research activities, project management, research program management, education, and professional training. - The application of fundamental concepts, theories, and methods of the field and study program in order to formulate competitive professional approaches; critical evaluation of scientific research results within the chosen specialization and the creative application of research methods.
7.2 Specific objectives	- The development of the capacity to synthesize and interpret recitals, concerts, to address fundamental issues of instrumental techniques, and to materialize these skills in high-performance interpretations presented before an audience. - Independent analysis of issues specific to instrumental techniques. - The enhancement of communication skills and the demonstration of selected technical and expressive solutions.

8. Content

8.1 Course	Teaching methods	Number of hours	Remarks
Issues of instrumental technique; problems of decoding and rendering the musical text; issues of interpretative stylistics	Interactive lecture, teaching, demonstration, explanation	4	Systematization and clarification of the main issues of instrumental technique according to individual technical abilities
Issues of interpretative stylistics and advanced performance techniques	Interactive lecture, score analysis,	6	Understanding the historical context and

	teaching, demonstration, explanation		the evolution of the instrument; development of advanced performance techniques
Issues of expressive and stylistic interpretation; self-evaluation	Interactive lecture, teaching, demonstration, explanation	4	Development of expressive and stylistic performance skills

Semester Repertoire

- Two scales with arpeggios and double stops

9. Correlation of course content with the demands of the labour market (epistemic communities, professional associations, potential employers in the field of study)

- Epistemic communities: Consultation with experts in musicology and music pedagogy to ensure the relevance and currency of the course content.
- Professional associations: Collaboration with musicians' associations to integrate professional standards into the curriculum.
- Employers: Dialogue with representatives of orchestras and musical institutions to align the developed competencies with labor market requirements.

10. Evaluation

Activity type	10.1 Evaluation criteria	10.2 Evaluation methods	10.3 Percentage of the final grade
10.4 Course	- Minimum quantitative standard: 3 works differing in style and one study - Technical and artistic performance in interpretation - Individual progress throughout the semester - Active participation in lectures and laboratory sessions	- Practical examinations (recitals, solo and ensemble performances) - Continuous assessment (periodic feedback, self-evaluation) - Memorized performance of selected works of varying difficulty, in accordance with university standards	50%
10.5 Seminar/ laboratory/ project	– Minimum quantitative standard: 3 works differing in style and one study - Receptiveness, engagement, and individual contribution during the laboratory; musicality; sense of rhythm; aesthetic/artistic sensitivity; acquired and applied theoretical knowledge; creativity		50%
10.6 Minimal performance standard
- Memorized performance of the assigned works during the semester

- Achievement of a passing grade (5)

6. Specific competences and learning outcomes

Professional competences	CP2. Reads musical scores. Reads musical scores during rehearsals and live performances. Learning Outcomes 2.1. Knowledge LO 2.1.1. The graduate knows musical symbols within the notation systems of various stylistic periods (Baroque, contemporary, etc.). LO 2.1.2. The graduate easily reads complex scores in real time, applying knowledge of music theory and solfège. LO 2.1.3. The graduate correlates musical notation with instrumental interpretative elements. 2.2. Skills L.O.2.2.1. The graduate develops advanced score-reading skills, ensuring a deep understanding of musical notation and the composer's instructions. L.O.2.2.2. The graduate masters sight-reading, accurately following rhythm, intonation, interpretation, and stylistic context. 2.3. Responsibility and Autonomy LO 2.3.1. The graduate performs at rehearsals and concerts by carefully following the score, ensuring proper integration into the ensemble or orchestra. L.O.2.3.2. The graduate assumes their interpretative vision following the reading of the musical score. L.O.2.3.3. The graduate uses musical scores responsibly, respecting dynamic markings and interpretative indications provided by the composer. CP3. Performs live. Performs in front of a live audience. Learning Outcomes 3.1. Knowledge L.O.3.1.1. The graduate has an in-depth understanding of the requirements of live performance and the modalities of stage presentation. L.O.3.1.2. The graduate demonstrates knowledge of how to communicate artistic expression on stage, including the use of nonverbal language. L.O.3.1.3. The graduate masters techniques for managing individual study in order to overcome stage fright. 3.2. Skills L.O.3.2.1. The graduate demonstrates advanced live performance skills, captivating audiences and conveying emotion through music. L.O.3.2.2. The graduate easily adapts to various live performance situations, successfully managing challenges and the unpredictability of artistic settings. L.O.3.2.3. The graduate masters stage-related emotions, effectively managing stage fright in front of an audience. 3.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.3.3.1. The graduate presents personal musical interpretations during recitals and performances, captivating the audience and conveying emotion. L.O.3.3.2. The graduate confidently expresses personal artistic messages, providing memorable artistic experiences. L.O.3.3.3. The graduate demonstrates a strong and charismatic stage presence, creating emotional connections with the audience.

Professional competences	CP4. Strives for excellence in musical performance. Continuously engages in perfecting their own instrumental interpretation. Learning Outcomes 4.1. Knowledge L.O.4.1.1. The graduate collaborates with other performers to produce comparative musical interpretations. L.O.4.1.2. The graduate analyzes and understands various artistic approaches and perspectives, developing their own interpretative vision. 4.2. Skills L.O.4.2.1. The graduate participates in music competitions and contests to demonstrate skills and gain professional recognition. L.O.4.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to grow as an artist by seeking feedback and guidance from music experts. L.O.4.2.3. The graduate develops abilities to convey emotions and artistic messages through consistent participation in concerts and auditions. 4.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.4.3.1. The graduate assumes responsibility for choosing the repertoire they perform on stage. L.O.4.3.2. The graduate adapts to diverse musical and artistic contexts by applying knowledge of musical styles, forms, and traditions to shape their own interpretative vision. L.O.4.3.3. The graduate studies responsibly, respecting all musical and technical requirements to refine their musical interpretation. CP5. Analyzes their own artistic performance. Understands, analyzes, and describes their own performance. Contextualizes their work within one or multiple styles, trends, and evolutions. Evaluates their own work during rehearsals and performances. Learning Outcomes 5.1. Knowledge L.O.5.1.1. The graduate masters knowledge related to the characteristics of various musical styles and applies them in their own interpretation. L.O.5.1.2. The graduate identifies different technical and interpretative approaches used by performers and formulates personal musical perspectives. 5.2. Skills L.O.5.2.1. The graduate critically understands and analyzes their own performance, identifying strengths and areas for improvement. L.O.5.2.2. The graduate reflects on and develops self-evaluation skills, learning from past artistic experiences to progress as a performing musician. L.O.5.2.3. The graduate explores various recording and analysis techniques to obtain an objective perspective on the quality and expressiveness of their performance. 5.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L..5.3.1. The graduate constantly consults and studies relevant informational sources within the musical-artistic field in order to continually refine their technical and interpretative outlook. L.O.5.3.2. The graduate continuously explores new, efficient study strategies to increase performance level.

Professional competences	CP6. Identifies characteristics of music. Identifies elementary, structural, and stylistic characteristics of music from different periods and cultures. Learning Outcomes 6.1. Knowledge L.O.6.1.1. The graduate comparatively evaluates musical excerpts belonging to different genres, styles, or expressive contexts, supporting observations with concrete elements of musical discourse. L.O.6.1.2. The graduate identifies and describes defining aspects of musical parameters, highlighting their role in the construction and interpretation of a musical work. L.O.6.1.3. The graduate classifies musical works based on the recognition of defining traits of genres and stylistic features of different musical eras. 6.2. Skills L.O.6.2.1. The graduate correlates the musical text with its sonic configuration. L.O.6.2.2. The graduate establishes connections between writing techniques and musical morphology, syntax, and architecture. L.O.6.2.3. The graduate evaluates the expressiveness of a musical excerpt by rigorously applying specific musical criteria such as phrasing, articulation, dynamics, and timbre. 6.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.6.3.1. The graduate actively participates in diverse artistic and social environments, using expertise in musical styles, forms, and traditions to refine and sustain artistic practices. L.O.6.3.2. The graduate adopts a responsible attitude when formulating and justifying individual viewpoints in musical analysis, supporting them with rigorous argumentation.

Transversal Competences	CT1. Thinks creatively Learning Outcomes 1.1. Knowledge L.O.1.1.1. The graduate recognizes the importance of creativity in the development and expression of artistic practice. L.O.1.1.2. The graduate identifies and applies various methods to optimize the creative process in artistic contexts. 1.2. Skills L.O.1.2.1. The graduate can apply conceptual working methods and strategies, focusing on understanding and developing the theoretical framework of musical principles. L.O.1.2.2. The graduate is able to design, improvise and implement creative and innovative approaches for solving complex problems. 1.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.1.3.1. The graduate develops innovative concepts by generating new ideas and creatively integrating existing ones. L.O.1.3.2. The graduate supports the manifestation of creative thinking by encouraging originality, flexibility, and the ability to generate new ideas.

Transversal Competences	CT2. Copes with stress Learning Outcomes 2.1. Knowledge L.O.2.1.1. The graduate identifies and uses appropriate stress-management techniques to maintain emotional balance in demanding situations. L.O.2.1.2. The graduate understands the essential role of emotional self-regulation and the need for adaptive strategies to manage affective experiences effectively. 2.2. Skills L.O.2.2.1. The graduate manages challenges, disruptions, and changes and recovers from setbacks and adversity. L.O.2.2.2. The graduate identifies difficult moments and shows readiness and ability to accept and manage challenges as opportunities for personal and professional growth. 2.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.2.3.1. The graduate demonstrates responsibility and maturity in handling high-pressure situations. L.O.2.3.2. The graduate recognizes when stress may become overwhelming and prepares to address such moments with strategy and resilience. CT3. Works in teams Learning Outcomes 3.1. Knowledge L.O.3.1.1. The graduate understands and applies appropriate methods of collaboration and communication to contribute constructively to collective activity. L.O.3.1.2. The graduate knows models of support and collaboration with colleagues within group activities, contributing to the achievement of shared goals. 3.2. Skills L.O.3.2.1. The graduate is able to work confidently within a group, with each member fulfilling their role for the benefit of the whole. L.O.3.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to support team members through effective collaboration within a shared project. 3.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.3.3.1. The graduate shows openness and responsibility in adopting innovative ideas that strengthen and support team success. L.O.3.3.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to recognize and take responsibility for failure in crisis situations, promoting transparency and cooperation within the team. CT4. Appreciates the diversity of cultural and artistic expressions Learning Outcomes 4.1. Knowledge L.O.4.1.1. The graduate recognizes and understands the diversity of cultural expression in various socio-cultural contexts. L.O.4.1.2. The graduate possesses aesthetic sensitivity and the ability to perceive and appreciate artistic expressions. 4.2. Skills LO 4.2.1. The graduate demonstrates the ability to critically evaluate and interpret various forms of artistic expression. LO 4.2.2. The graduate shows aesthetic sensitivity, interest, and openness toward artistic expressions from diverse cultural backgrounds.

Transversal Competences	4.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.4.3.1. The graduate responsibly expresses and justifies opinions and evaluations related to various artistic cultures, assuming responsibility for the judgments made. L.O.4.3.2. The graduate produces individual interpretations based on the understanding and appreciation of cultural differences.

7. Course objectives (resulting from the specific competences to be acquired)

7.1 General course objective	- The acquisition of a body of knowledge aimed at achieving professional performance through personal and professional development, the formation and development of the competencies required to attain professional excellence in the field of instrumental music, and the development of new professional competencies in accordance with the evolution of contemporary musical society and labor market requirements. - Knowledge, selection, and application of methods, theories, and applied concepts for the accurate determination of the theory–practice relationship, with a view to achieving excellence in musical performance. - The application and transfer of conceptual, technical, and interpretative skills, as well as problem-solving abilities specific to the field of Music, in order to achieve high-level performance outcomes. - The development of advanced capacities for conducting research activities, project management, research program management, education, and professional training. - The application of fundamental concepts, theories, and methods of the field and study program in order to formulate competitive professional approaches; critical evaluation of scientific research results within the chosen specialization and the creative application of research methods.
7.2 Specific objectives	- The development of the capacity to synthesize and interpret recitals, concerts, to address fundamental issues of instrumental techniques, and to materialize these skills in high-performance interpretations presented before an audience. - Independent analysis of issues specific to instrumental techniques. - The enhancement of communication skills and the demonstration of selected technical and expressive solutions.

6. Specific competences and learning outcomes

Professional competences	CP2. Reads musical scores. Reads musical scores during rehearsals and live performances. Learning Outcomes 2.1. Knowledge LO 2.1.1. The graduate knows musical symbols within the notation systems of various stylistic periods (Baroque, contemporary, etc.). LO 2.1.2. The graduate easily reads complex scores in real time, applying knowledge of music theory and solfège. LO 2.1.3. The graduate correlates musical notation with instrumental interpretative elements. 2.2. Skills L.O.2.2.1. The graduate develops advanced score-reading skills, ensuring a deep understanding of musical notation and the composer's instructions. L.O.2.2.2. The graduate masters sight-reading, accurately following rhythm, intonation, interpretation, and stylistic context. 2.3. Responsibility and Autonomy LO 2.3.1. The graduate performs at rehearsals and concerts by carefully following the score, ensuring proper integration into the ensemble or orchestra. L.O.2.3.2. The graduate assumes their interpretative vision following the reading of the musical score. L.O.2.3.3. The graduate uses musical scores responsibly, respecting dynamic markings and interpretative indications provided by the composer. CP3. Performs live. Performs in front of a live audience. Learning Outcomes 3.1. Knowledge L.O.3.1.1. The graduate has an in-depth understanding of the requirements of live performance and the modalities of stage presentation. L.O.3.1.2. The graduate demonstrates knowledge of how to communicate artistic expression on stage, including the use of nonverbal language. L.O.3.1.3. The graduate masters techniques for managing individual study in order to overcome stage fright. 3.2. Skills L.O.3.2.1. The graduate demonstrates advanced live performance skills, captivating audiences and conveying emotion through music. L.O.3.2.2. The graduate easily adapts to various live performance situations, successfully managing challenges and the unpredictability of artistic settings. L.O.3.2.3. The graduate masters stage-related emotions, effectively managing stage fright in front of an audience. 3.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.3.3.1. The graduate presents personal musical interpretations during recitals and performances, captivating the audience and conveying emotion. L.O.3.3.2. The graduate confidently expresses personal artistic messages, providing memorable artistic experiences. L.O.3.3.3. The graduate demonstrates a strong and charismatic stage presence, creating emotional connections with the audience.

Professional competences	CP4. Strives for excellence in musical performance. Continuously engages in perfecting their own instrumental interpretation. Learning Outcomes 4.1. Knowledge L.O.4.1.1. The graduate collaborates with other performers to produce comparative musical interpretations. L.O.4.1.2. The graduate analyzes and understands various artistic approaches and perspectives, developing their own interpretative vision. 4.2. Skills L.O.4.2.1. The graduate participates in music competitions and contests to demonstrate skills and gain professional recognition. L.O.4.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to grow as an artist by seeking feedback and guidance from music experts. L.O.4.2.3. The graduate develops abilities to convey emotions and artistic messages through consistent participation in concerts and auditions. 4.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.4.3.1. The graduate assumes responsibility for choosing the repertoire they perform on stage. L.O.4.3.2. The graduate adapts to diverse musical and artistic contexts by applying knowledge of musical styles, forms, and traditions to shape their own interpretative vision. L.O.4.3.3. The graduate studies responsibly, respecting all musical and technical requirements to refine their musical interpretation. CP5. Analyzes their own artistic performance. Understands, analyzes, and describes their own performance. Contextualizes their work within one or multiple styles, trends, and evolutions. Evaluates their own work during rehearsals and performances. Learning Outcomes 5.1. Knowledge L.O.5.1.1. The graduate masters knowledge related to the characteristics of various musical styles and applies them in their own interpretation. L.O.5.1.2. The graduate identifies different technical and interpretative approaches used by performers and formulates personal musical perspectives. 5.2. Skills L.O.5.2.1. The graduate critically understands and analyzes their own performance, identifying strengths and areas for improvement. L.O.5.2.2. The graduate reflects on and develops self-evaluation skills, learning from past artistic experiences to progress as a performing musician. L.O.5.2.3. The graduate explores various recording and analysis techniques to obtain an objective perspective on the quality and expressiveness of their performance. 5.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L..5.3.1. The graduate constantly consults and studies relevant informational sources within the musical-artistic field in order to continually refine their technical and interpretative outlook. L.O.5.3.2. The graduate continuously explores new, efficient study strategies to increase performance level.

Professional competences	CP6. Identifies characteristics of music. Identifies elementary, structural, and stylistic characteristics of music from different periods and cultures. Learning Outcomes 6.1. Knowledge L.O.6.1.1. The graduate comparatively evaluates musical excerpts belonging to different genres, styles, or expressive contexts, supporting observations with concrete elements of musical discourse. L.O.6.1.2. The graduate identifies and describes defining aspects of musical parameters, highlighting their role in the construction and interpretation of a musical work. L.O.6.1.3. The graduate classifies musical works based on the recognition of defining traits of genres and stylistic features of different musical eras. 6.2. Skills L.O.6.2.1. The graduate correlates the musical text with its sonic configuration. L.O.6.2.2. The graduate establishes connections between writing techniques and musical morphology, syntax, and architecture. L.O.6.2.3. The graduate evaluates the expressiveness of a musical excerpt by rigorously applying specific musical criteria such as phrasing, articulation, dynamics, and timbre. 6.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.6.3.1. The graduate actively participates in diverse artistic and social environments, using expertise in musical styles, forms, and traditions to refine and sustain artistic practices. L.O.6.3.2. The graduate adopts a responsible attitude when formulating and justifying individual viewpoints in musical analysis, supporting them with rigorous argumentation.

Transversal Competences	CT1. Thinks creatively Learning Outcomes 1.1. Knowledge L.O.1.1.1. The graduate recognizes the importance of creativity in the development and expression of artistic practice. L.O.1.1.2. The graduate identifies and applies various methods to optimize the creative process in artistic contexts. 1.2. Skills L.O.1.2.1. The graduate can apply conceptual working methods and strategies, focusing on understanding and developing the theoretical framework of musical principles. L.O.1.2.2. The graduate is able to design, improvise and implement creative and innovative approaches for solving complex problems. 1.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.1.3.1. The graduate develops innovative concepts by generating new ideas and creatively integrating existing ones. L.O.1.3.2. The graduate supports the manifestation of creative thinking by encouraging originality, flexibility, and the ability to generate new ideas.

Transversal Competences	CT2. Copes with stress Learning Outcomes 2.1. Knowledge L.O.2.1.1. The graduate identifies and uses appropriate stress-management techniques to maintain emotional balance in demanding situations. L.O.2.1.2. The graduate understands the essential role of emotional self-regulation and the need for adaptive strategies to manage affective experiences effectively. 2.2. Skills L.O.2.2.1. The graduate manages challenges, disruptions, and changes and recovers from setbacks and adversity. L.O.2.2.2. The graduate identifies difficult moments and shows readiness and ability to accept and manage challenges as opportunities for personal and professional growth. 2.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.2.3.1. The graduate demonstrates responsibility and maturity in handling high-pressure situations. L.O.2.3.2. The graduate recognizes when stress may become overwhelming and prepares to address such moments with strategy and resilience. CT3. Works in teams Learning Outcomes 3.1. Knowledge L.O.3.1.1. The graduate understands and applies appropriate methods of collaboration and communication to contribute constructively to collective activity. L.O.3.1.2. The graduate knows models of support and collaboration with colleagues within group activities, contributing to the achievement of shared goals. 3.2. Skills L.O.3.2.1. The graduate is able to work confidently within a group, with each member fulfilling their role for the benefit of the whole. L.O.3.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to support team members through effective collaboration within a shared project. 3.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.3.3.1. The graduate shows openness and responsibility in adopting innovative ideas that strengthen and support team success. L.O.3.3.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to recognize and take responsibility for failure in crisis situations, promoting transparency and cooperation within the team. CT4. Appreciates the diversity of cultural and artistic expressions Learning Outcomes 4.1. Knowledge L.O.4.1.1. The graduate recognizes and understands the diversity of cultural expression in various socio-cultural contexts. L.O.4.1.2. The graduate possesses aesthetic sensitivity and the ability to perceive and appreciate artistic expressions. 4.2. Skills LO 4.2.1. The graduate demonstrates the ability to critically evaluate and interpret various forms of artistic expression. LO 4.2.2. The graduate shows aesthetic sensitivity, interest, and openness toward artistic expressions from diverse cultural backgrounds.

Transversal Competences	4.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.4.3.1. The graduate responsibly expresses and justifies opinions and evaluations related to various artistic cultures, assuming responsibility for the judgments made. L.O.4.3.2. The graduate produces individual interpretations based on the understanding and appreciation of cultural differences.

7. Course objectives (resulting from the specific competences to be acquired)

7.1 General course objective	- The acquisition of a body of knowledge aimed at achieving professional performance through personal and professional development, the formation and development of the competencies required to attain professional excellence in the field of instrumental music, and the development of new professional competencies in accordance with the evolution of contemporary musical society and labor market requirements. - Knowledge, selection, and application of methods, theories, and applied concepts for the accurate determination of the theory–practice relationship, with a view to achieving excellence in musical performance. - The application and transfer of conceptual, technical, and interpretative skills, as well as problem-solving abilities specific to the field of Music, in order to achieve high-level performance outcomes. - The development of advanced capacities for conducting research activities, project management, research program management, education, and professional training. - The application of fundamental concepts, theories, and methods of the field and study program in order to formulate competitive professional approaches; critical evaluation of scientific research results within the chosen specialization and the creative application of research methods.
7.2 Specific objectives	- The development of the capacity to synthesize and interpret recitals, concerts, to address fundamental issues of instrumental techniques, and to materialize these skills in high-performance interpretations presented before an audience. - Independent analysis of issues specific to instrumental techniques. - The enhancement of communication skills and the demonstration of selected technical and expressive solutions.

Skills L.O.1.2.1. The graduate can apply conceptual working methods and strategies, focusing on understanding and developing the theoretical framework of musical principles. L.O.1.2.2. The graduate is able to design, improvise and implement creative and innovative approaches for solving complex problems. 1.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.1.3.1. The graduate develops innovative concepts by generating new ideas and creatively integrating existing ones. L.O.1.3.2. The graduate supports the manifestation of creative thinking by encouraging originality, flexibility, and the ability to generate new ideas.

Transversal Competences	CT2. Copes with stress Learning Outcomes 2.1. Knowledge L.O.2.1.1. The graduate identifies and uses appropriate stress-management techniques to maintain emotional balance in demanding situations. L.O.2.1.2. The graduate understands the essential role of emotional self-regulation and the need for adaptive strategies to manage affective experiences effectively. 2.2. Skills L.O.2.2.1. The graduate manages challenges, disruptions, and changes and recovers from setbacks and adversity. L.O.2.2.2. The graduate identifies difficult moments and shows readiness and ability to accept and manage challenges as opportunities for personal and professional growth. 2.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.2.3.1. The graduate demonstrates responsibility and maturity in handling high-pressure situations. L.O.2.3.2. The graduate recognizes when stress may become overwhelming and prepares to address such moments with strategy and resilience. CT3. Works in teams Learning Outcomes 3.1. Knowledge L.O.3.1.1. The graduate understands and applies appropriate methods of collaboration and communication to contribute constructively to collective activity. L.O.3.1.2. The graduate knows models of support and collaboration with colleagues within group activities, contributing to the achievement of shared goals. 3.2. Skills L.O.3.2.1. The graduate is able to work confidently within a group, with each member fulfilling their role for the benefit of the whole. L.O.3.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to support team members through effective collaboration within a shared project. 3.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.3.3.1. The graduate shows openness and responsibility in adopting innovative ideas that strengthen and support team success. L.O.3.3.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to recognize and take responsibility for failure in crisis situations, promoting transparency and cooperation within the team. CT4. Appreciates the diversity of cultural and artistic expressions Learning Outcomes 4.1. Knowledge L.O.4.1.1. The graduate recognizes and understands the diversity of cultural expression in various socio-cultural contexts. L.O.4.1.2. The graduate possesses aesthetic sensitivity and the ability to perceive and appreciate artistic expressions. 4.2. Skills LO 4.2.1. The graduate demonstrates the ability to critically evaluate and interpret various forms of artistic expression. LO 4.2.2. The graduate shows aesthetic sensitivity, interest, and openness toward artistic expressions from diverse cultural backgrounds.

Transversal Competences	4.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.4.3.1. The graduate responsibly expresses and justifies opinions and evaluations related to various artistic cultures, assuming responsibility for the judgments made. L.O.4.3.2. The graduate produces individual interpretations based on the understanding and appreciation of cultural differences.

7. Course objectives (resulting from the specific competences to be acquired)

7.1 General course objective	- The acquisition of a body of knowledge aimed at achieving professional performance through personal and professional development, the formation and development of the competencies required to attain professional excellence in the field of instrumental music, and the development of new professional competencies in accordance with the evolution of contemporary musical society and labor market requirements. - Knowledge, selection, and application of methods, theories, and applied concepts for the accurate determination of the theory–practice relationship, with a view to achieving excellence in musical performance. - The application and transfer of conceptual, technical, and interpretative skills, as well as problem-solving abilities specific to the field of Music, in order to achieve high-level performance outcomes. - The development of advanced capacities for conducting research activities, project management, research program management, education, and professional training. - The application of fundamental concepts, theories, and methods of the field and study program in order to formulate competitive professional approaches; critical evaluation of scientific research results within the chosen specialization and the creative application of research methods.
7.2 Specific objectives	- The development of the capacity to synthesize and interpret recitals, concerts, to address fundamental issues of instrumental techniques, and to materialize these skills in high-performance interpretations presented before an audience. - Independent analysis of issues specific to instrumental techniques. - The enhancement of communication skills and the demonstration of selected technical and expressive solutions.

8. Content

8.1 Course	Teaching methods	Number of hours	Remarks
Issues of instrumental technique; problems of decoding and rendering the musical text; issues of interpretative stylistics	Interactive lecture, teaching, demonstration, explanation	4	Systematization and clarification of the main issues of instrumental technique according to individual technical abilities
Issues of interpretative stylistics and advanced performance techniques	Interactive lecture, score analysis,	6	Understanding the historical context and

	teaching, demonstration, explanation		the evolution of the instrument; development of advanced performance techniques
Issues of expressive and stylistic interpretation; self-evaluation	Interactive lecture, teaching, demonstration, explanation	4	Development of expressive and stylistic performance skills
Semester Repertoire • Scales and arpeggios • Philippe Bernold – Technical Exercises • Günther Passin, Reinhold Malzer – Technical Exercises • Johann Heinrich Luft – 24 Studies for Oboe • Carl Nielsen – Fantasy Pieces for Oboe and Piano • Georg Philipp Telemann – Sonata in A Minor for Oboe and Piano • Antonio Vivaldi – Concerto in A Minor for Oboe and Orchestra (or piano reduction)

6. Specific competences and learning outcomes

Professional competences	CP2. Reads musical scores. Reads musical scores during rehearsals and live performances. Learning Outcomes 2.1. Knowledge LO 2.1.1. The graduate knows musical symbols within the notation systems of various stylistic periods (Baroque, contemporary, etc.). LO 2.1.2. The graduate easily reads complex scores in real time, applying knowledge of music theory and solfège. LO 2.1.3. The graduate correlates musical notation with instrumental elements. 2.2. Skills L.O.2.2.1. The graduate develops advanced score-reading skills, ensuring a deep understanding of musical notation and the composer's instructions. L.O.2.2.2. The graduate masters sight-reading, accurately following rhythm, intonation, interpretation, and stylistic context. 2.3. Responsibility and Autonomy LO 2.3.1. The graduate performs at rehearsals and concerts by carefully following the score, ensuring proper integration into the ensemble or orchestra. L.O.2.3.2. The graduate assumes their interpretative vision following the reading of the musical score. L.O.2.3.3. The graduate uses musical scores responsibly, respecting dynamic markings and interpretative indications provided by the composer. CP3. Performs live. Performs in front of a live audience. Learning Outcomes 3.1. Knowledge L.O.3.1.1. The graduate has an in-depth understanding of the requirements of live performance and the modalities of stage presentation. L.O.3.1.2. The graduate demonstrates knowledge of how to communicate artistic expression on stage, including the use of nonverbal language. L.O.3.1.3. The graduate masters techniques for managing individual study in order to overcome stage fright. 3.2. Skills L.O.3.2.1. The graduate demonstrates advanced live performance skills, captivating audiences and conveying emotion through music. L.O.3.2.2. The graduate easily adapts to various live performance situations, successfully managing challenges and the unpredictability of artistic settings. L.O.3.2.3. The graduate masters stage-related emotions, effectively managing stage fright in front of an audience. 3.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.3.3.1. The graduate presents personal musical interpretations during recitals and performances, captivating the audience and conveying emotion. L.O.3.3.2. The graduate confidently expresses personal artistic messages, providing memorable artistic experiences. L.O.3.3.3. The graduate demonstrates a strong and charismatic stage presence, creating emotional connections with the audience.

Professional competences	CP4. Strives for excellence in musical performance. Continuously engages in perfecting their own instrumental interpretation. Learning Outcomes 4.1. Knowledge L.O.4.1.1. The graduate collaborates with other performers to produce comparative musical interpretations. L.O.4.1.2. The graduate analyzes and understands various artistic approaches and perspectives, developing their own interpretative vision. 4.2. Skills L.O.4.2.1. The graduate participates in music competitions and contests to demonstrate skills and gain professional recognition. L.O.4.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to grow as an artist by seeking feedback and guidance from music experts. L.O.4.2.3. The graduate develops abilities to convey emotions and artistic messages through consistent participation in concerts and auditions. 4.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.4.3.1. The graduate assumes responsibility for choosing the repertoire they perform on stage. L.O.4.3.2. The graduate adapts to diverse musical and artistic contexts by applying knowledge of musical styles, forms, and traditions to shape their own interpretative vision. L.O.4.3.3. The graduate studies responsibly, respecting all musical and technical requirements to refine their musical interpretation. CP5. Analyzes their own artistic performance. Understands, analyzes, and describes their own performance. Contextualizes their work within one or multiple styles, trends, and evolutions. Evaluates their own work during rehearsals and performances. Learning Outcomes 5.1. Knowledge L.O.5.1.1. The graduate masters knowledge related to the characteristics of various musical styles and applies them in their own interpretation. L.O.5.1.2. The graduate identifies different technical and interpretative approaches used by performers and formulates personal musical perspectives. 5.2. Skills L.O.5.2.1. The graduate critically understands and analyzes their own performance, identifying strengths and areas for improvement. L.O.5.2.2. The graduate reflects on and develops self-evaluation skills, learning from past artistic experiences to progress as a performing musician. L.O.5.2.3. The graduate explores various recording and analysis techniques to obtain an objective perspective on the quality and expressiveness of their performance. 5.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L..5.3.1. The graduate constantly consults and studies relevant informational sources within the musical-artistic field in order to continually refine their technical and interpretative outlook. L.O.5.3.2. The graduate continuously explores new, efficient study strategies to increase performance level.

Professional competences	CP6. Identifies characteristics of music. Identifies elementary, structural, and stylistic characteristics of music from different periods and cultures. Learning Outcomes 6.1. Knowledge L.O.6.1.1. The graduate comparatively evaluates musical excerpts belonging to different genres, styles, or expressive contexts, supporting observations with concrete elements of musical discourse. L.O.6.1.2. The graduate identifies and describes defining aspects of musical parameters, highlighting their role in the construction and interpretation of a musical work. L.O.6.1.3. The graduate classifies musical works based on the recognition of defining traits of genres and stylistic features of different musical eras. 6.2. Skills L.O.6.2.1. The graduate correlates the musical text with its sonic configuration. L.O.6.2.2. The graduate establishes connections between writing techniques and musical morphology, syntax, and architecture. L.O.6.2.3. The graduate evaluates the expressiveness of a musical excerpt by rigorously applying specific musical criteria such as phrasing, articulation, dynamics, and timbre. 6.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.6.3.1. The graduate actively participates in diverse artistic and social environments, using expertise in musical styles, forms, and traditions to refine and sustain artistic practices. L.O.6.3.2. The graduate adopts a responsible attitude when formulating and justifying individual viewpoints in musical analysis, supporting them with rigorous argumentation.

Transversal Competences	CT1. Thinks creatively Learning Outcomes 1.1. Knowledge L.O.1.1.1. The graduate recognizes the importance of creativity in the development and expression of artistic practice. L.O.1.1.2. The graduate identifies and applies various methods to optimize the creative process in artistic contexts. 1.2. Skills L.O.1.2.1. The graduate can apply conceptual working methods and strategies, focusing on understanding and developing the theoretical framework of musical principles. L.O.1.2.2. The graduate is able to design, improvise and implement creative and innovative approaches for solving complex problems. 1.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.1.3.1. The graduate develops innovative concepts by generating new ideas and creatively integrating existing ones. L.O.1.3.2. The graduate supports the manifestation of creative thinking by encouraging originality, flexibility, and the ability to generate new ideas.

Transversal Competences	CT2. Copes with stress Learning Outcomes 2.1. Knowledge L.O.2.1.1. The graduate identifies and uses appropriate stress-management techniques to maintain emotional balance in demanding situations. L.O.2.1.2. The graduate understands the essential role of emotional self-regulation and the need for adaptive strategies to manage affective experiences effectively. 2.2. Skills L.O.2.2.1. The graduate manages challenges, disruptions, and changes and recovers from setbacks and adversity. L.O.2.2.2. The graduate identifies difficult moments and shows readiness and ability to accept and manage challenges as opportunities for personal and professional growth. 2.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.2.3.1. The graduate demonstrates responsibility and maturity in handling high-pressure situations. L.O.2.3.2. The graduate recognizes when stress may become overwhelming and prepares to address such moments with strategy and resilience. CT3. Works in teams Learning Outcomes 3.1. Knowledge L.O.3.1.1. The graduate understands and applies appropriate methods of collaboration and communication to contribute constructively to collective activity. L.O.3.1.2. The graduate knows models of support and collaboration with colleagues within group activities, contributing to the achievement of shared goals. 3.2. Skills L.O.3.2.1. The graduate is able to work confidently within a group, with each member fulfilling their role for the benefit of the whole. L.O.3.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to support team members through effective collaboration within a shared project. 3.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.3.3.1. The graduate shows openness and responsibility in adopting innovative ideas that strengthen and support team success. L.O.3.3.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to recognize and take responsibility for failure in crisis situations, promoting transparency and cooperation within the team. CT4. Appreciates the diversity of cultural and artistic expressions Learning Outcomes 4.1. Knowledge L.O.4.1.1. The graduate recognizes and understands the diversity of cultural expression in various socio-cultural contexts. L.O.4.1.2. The graduate possesses aesthetic sensitivity and the ability to perceive and appreciate artistic expressions. 4.2. Skills LO 4.2.1. The graduate demonstrates the ability to critically evaluate and interpret various forms of artistic expression. LO 4.2.2. The graduate shows aesthetic sensitivity, interest, and openness toward artistic expressions from diverse cultural backgrounds.

Transversal Competences	4.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.4.3.1. The graduate responsibly expresses and justifies opinions and evaluations related to various artistic cultures, assuming responsibility for the judgments made. L.O.4.3.2. The graduate produces individual interpretations based on the understanding and appreciation of cultural differences.

Skills L.O.3.2.1. The graduate demonstrates advanced live performance skills, captivating audiences and conveying emotion through music. L.O.3.2.2. The graduate easily adapts to various live performance situations, successfully managing challenges and the unpredictability of artistic settings. L.O.3.2.3. The graduate masters stage-related emotions, effectively managing stage fright in front of an audience. 3.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.3.3.1. The graduate presents personal musical interpretations during recitals and performances, captivating the audience and conveying emotion. L.O.3.3.2. The graduate confidently expresses personal artistic messages, providing memorable artistic experiences. L.O.3.3.3. The graduate demonstrates a strong and charismatic stage presence, creating emotional connections with the audience.

Professional competences	CP4. Strives for excellence in musical performance. Continuously engages in perfecting their own instrumental interpretation. Learning Outcomes 4.1. Knowledge L.O.4.1.1. The graduate collaborates with other performers to produce comparative musical interpretations. L.O.4.1.2. The graduate analyzes and understands various artistic approaches and perspectives, developing their own interpretative vision. 4.2. Skills L.O.4.2.1. The graduate participates in music competitions and contests to demonstrate skills and gain professional recognition. L.O.4.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to grow as an artist by seeking feedback and guidance from music experts. L.O.4.2.3. The graduate develops abilities to convey emotions and artistic messages through consistent participation in concerts and auditions. 4.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.4.3.1. The graduate assumes responsibility for choosing the repertoire they perform on stage. L.O.4.3.2. The graduate adapts to diverse musical and artistic contexts by applying knowledge of musical styles, forms, and traditions to shape their own interpretative vision. L.O.4.3.3. The graduate studies responsibly, respecting all musical and technical requirements to refine their musical interpretation. CP5. Analyzes their own artistic performance. Understands, analyzes, and describes their own performance. Contextualizes their work within one or multiple styles, trends, and evolutions. Evaluates their own work during rehearsals and performances. Learning Outcomes 5.1. Knowledge L.O.5.1.1. The graduate masters knowledge related to the characteristics of various musical styles and applies them in their own interpretation. L.O.5.1.2. The graduate identifies different technical and interpretative approaches used by performers and formulates personal musical perspectives. 5.2. Skills L.O.5.2.1. The graduate critically understands and analyzes their own performance, identifying strengths and areas for improvement. L.O.5.2.2. The graduate reflects on and develops self-evaluation skills, learning from past artistic experiences to progress as a performing musician. L.O.5.2.3. The graduate explores various recording and analysis techniques to obtain an objective perspective on the quality and expressiveness of their performance. 5.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L..5.3.1. The graduate constantly consults and studies relevant informational sources within the musical-artistic field in order to continually refine their technical and interpretative outlook. L.O.5.3.2. The graduate continuously explores new, efficient study strategies to increase performance level.

Professional competences	CP6. Identifies characteristics of music. Identifies elementary, structural, and stylistic characteristics of music from different periods and cultures. Learning Outcomes 6.1. Knowledge L.O.6.1.1. The graduate comparatively evaluates musical excerpts belonging to different genres, styles, or expressive contexts, supporting observations with concrete elements of musical discourse. L.O.6.1.2. The graduate identifies and describes defining aspects of musical parameters, highlighting their role in the construction and interpretation of a musical work. L.O.6.1.3. The graduate classifies musical works based on the recognition of defining traits of genres and stylistic features of different musical eras. 6.2. Skills L.O.6.2.1. The graduate correlates the musical text with its sonic configuration. L.O.6.2.2. The graduate establishes connections between writing techniques and musical morphology, syntax, and architecture. L.O.6.2.3. The graduate evaluates the expressiveness of a musical excerpt by rigorously applying specific musical criteria such as phrasing, articulation, dynamics, and timbre. 6.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.6.3.1. The graduate actively participates in diverse artistic and social environments, using expertise in musical styles, forms, and traditions to refine and sustain artistic practices. L.O.6.3.2. The graduate adopts a responsible attitude when formulating and justifying individual viewpoints in musical analysis, supporting them with rigorous argumentation.

Transversal Competences	CT1. Thinks creatively Learning Outcomes 1.1. Knowledge L.O.1.1.1. The graduate recognizes the importance of creativity in the development and expression of artistic practice. L.O.1.1.2. The graduate identifies and applies various methods to optimize the creative process in artistic contexts. 1.2. Skills L.O.1.2.1. The graduate can apply conceptual working methods and strategies, focusing on understanding and developing the theoretical framework of musical principles. L.O.1.2.2. The graduate is able to design, improvise and implement creative and innovative approaches for solving complex problems. 1.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.1.3.1. The graduate develops innovative concepts by generating new ideas and creatively integrating existing ones. L.O.1.3.2. The graduate supports the manifestation of creative thinking by encouraging originality, flexibility, and the ability to generate new ideas.

Transversal Competences	CT2. Copes with stress Learning Outcomes 2.1. Knowledge L.O.2.1.1. The graduate identifies and uses appropriate stress-management techniques to maintain emotional balance in demanding situations. L.O.2.1.2. The graduate understands the essential role of emotional self-regulation and the need for adaptive strategies to manage affective experiences effectively. 2.2. Skills L.O.2.2.1. The graduate manages challenges, disruptions, and changes and recovers from setbacks and adversity. L.O.2.2.2. The graduate identifies difficult moments and shows readiness and ability to accept and manage challenges as opportunities for personal and professional growth. 2.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.2.3.1. The graduate demonstrates responsibility and maturity in handling high-pressure situations. L.O.2.3.2. The graduate recognizes when stress may become overwhelming and prepares to address such moments with strategy and resilience. CT3. Works in teams Learning Outcomes 3.1. Knowledge L.O.3.1.1. The graduate understands and applies appropriate methods of collaboration and communication to contribute constructively to collective activity. L.O.3.1.2. The graduate knows models of support and collaboration with colleagues within group activities, contributing to the achievement of shared goals. 3.2. Skills L.O.3.2.1. The graduate is able to work confidently within a group, with each member fulfilling their role for the benefit of the whole. L.O.3.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to support team members through effective collaboration within a shared project. 3.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.3.3.1. The graduate shows openness and responsibility in adopting innovative ideas that strengthen and support team success. L.O.3.3.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to recognize and take responsibility for failure in crisis situations, promoting transparency and cooperation within the team. CT4. Appreciates the diversity of cultural and artistic expressions Learning Outcomes 4.1. Knowledge L.O.4.1.1. The graduate recognizes and understands the diversity of cultural expression in various socio-cultural contexts. L.O.4.1.2. The graduate possesses aesthetic sensitivity and the ability to perceive and appreciate artistic expressions. 4.2. Skills LO 4.2.1. The graduate demonstrates the ability to critically evaluate and interpret various forms of artistic expression. LO 4.2.2. The graduate shows aesthetic sensitivity, interest, and openness toward artistic expressions from diverse cultural backgrounds.

Transversal Competences	4.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.4.3.1. The graduate responsibly expresses and justifies opinions and evaluations related to various artistic cultures, assuming responsibility for the judgments made. L.O.4.3.2. The graduate produces individual interpretations based on the understanding and appreciation of cultural differences.

7. Course objectives (resulting from the specific competences to be acquired)

7.1 General course objective	- The acquisition of a body of knowledge aimed at achieving professional performance through personal and professional development, the formation and development of the competencies required to attain professional excellence in the field of instrumental music, and the development of new professional competencies in accordance with the evolution of contemporary musical society and labor market requirements. - Knowledge, selection, and application of methods, theories, and applied concepts for the accurate determination of the theory–practice relationship, with a view to achieving excellence in musical performance. - The application and transfer of conceptual, technical, and interpretative skills, as well as problem-solving abilities specific to the field of Music, in order to achieve high-level performance outcomes. - The development of advanced capacities for conducting research activities, project management, research program management, education, and professional training. - The application of fundamental concepts, theories, and methods of the field and study program in order to formulate competitive professional approaches; critical evaluation of scientific research results within the chosen specialization and the creative application of research methods.
7.2 Specific objectives	- The development of the capacity to synthesize and interpret recitals, concerts, to address fundamental issues of instrumental techniques, and to materialize these skills in high-performance interpretations presented before an audience. - Independent analysis of issues specific to instrumental techniques. - The enhancement of communication skills and the demonstration of selected technical and expressive solutions.

Professional competences	CP4. Strives for excellence in musical performance. Continuously engages in perfecting their own instrumental interpretation. Learning Outcomes 4.1. Knowledge L.O.4.1.1. The graduate collaborates with other performers to produce comparative musical interpretations. L.O.4.1.2. The graduate analyzes and understands various artistic approaches and perspectives, developing their own interpretative vision. 4.2. Skills L.O.4.2.1. The graduate participates in music competitions and contests to demonstrate skills and gain professional recognition. L.O.4.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to grow as an artist by seeking feedback and guidance from music experts. L.O.4.2.3. The graduate develops abilities to convey emotions and artistic messages through consistent participation in concerts and auditions. 4.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.4.3.1. The graduate assumes responsibility for choosing the repertoire they perform on stage. L.O.4.3.2. The graduate adapts to diverse musical and artistic contexts by applying knowledge of musical styles, forms, and traditions to shape their own interpretative vision. L.O.4.3.3. The graduate studies responsibly, respecting all musical and technical requirements to refine their musical interpretation. CP5. Analyzes their own artistic performance. Understands, analyzes, and describes their own performance. Contextualizes their work within one or multiple styles, trends, and evolutions. Evaluates their own work during rehearsals and performances. Learning Outcomes 5.1. Knowledge L.O.5.1.1. The graduate masters knowledge related to the characteristics of various musical styles and applies them in their own interpretation. L.O.5.1.2. The graduate identifies different technical and interpretative approaches used by performers and formulates personal musical perspectives. 5.2. Skills L.O.5.2.1. The graduate critically understands and analyzes their own performance, identifying strengths and areas for improvement. L.O.5.2.2. The graduate reflects on and develops self-evaluation skills, learning from past artistic experiences to progress as a performing musician. L.O.5.2.3. The graduate explores various recording and analysis techniques to obtain an objective perspective on the quality and expressiveness of their performance. 5.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L..5.3.1. The graduate constantly consults and studies relevant informational sources within the musical-artistic field in order to continually refine their technical and interpretative outlook. L.O.5.3.2. The graduate continuously explores new, efficient study strategies to increase performance level.

Professional competences	CP6. Identifies characteristics of music. Identifies elementary, structural, and stylistic characteristics of music from different periods and cultures. Learning Outcomes 6.1. Knowledge L.O.6.1.1. The graduate comparatively evaluates musical excerpts belonging to different genres, styles, or expressive contexts, supporting observations with concrete elements of musical discourse. L.O.6.1.2. The graduate identifies and describes defining aspects of musical parameters, highlighting their role in the construction and interpretation of a musical work. L.O.6.1.3. The graduate classifies musical works based on the recognition of defining traits of genres and stylistic features of different musical eras. 6.2. Skills L.O.6.2.1. The graduate correlates the musical text with its sonic configuration. L.O.6.2.2. The graduate establishes connections between writing techniques and musical morphology, syntax, and architecture. L.O.6.2.3. The graduate evaluates the expressiveness of a musical excerpt by rigorously applying specific musical criteria such as phrasing, articulation, dynamics, and timbre. 6.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.6.3.1. The graduate actively participates in diverse artistic and social environments, using expertise in musical styles, forms, and traditions to refine and sustain artistic practices. L.O.6.3.2. The graduate adopts a responsible attitude when formulating and justifying individual viewpoints in musical analysis, supporting them with rigorous argumentation.

Transversal Competences	CT1. Thinks creatively Learning Outcomes 1.1. Knowledge L.O.1.1.1. The graduate recognizes the importance of creativity in the development and expression of artistic practice. L.O.1.1.2. The graduate identifies and applies various methods to optimize the creative process in artistic contexts. 1.2. Skills L.O.1.2.1. The graduate can apply conceptual working methods and strategies, focusing on understanding and developing the theoretical framework of musical principles. L.O.1.2.2. The graduate is able to design, improvise and implement creative and innovative approaches for solving complex problems. 1.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.1.3.1. The graduate develops innovative concepts by generating new ideas and creatively integrating existing ones. L.O.1.3.2. The graduate supports the manifestation of creative thinking by encouraging originality, flexibility, and the ability to generate new ideas.

Transversal Competences	CT2. Copes with stress Learning Outcomes 2.1. Knowledge L.O.2.1.1. The graduate identifies and uses appropriate stress-management techniques to maintain emotional balance in demanding situations. L.O.2.1.2. The graduate understands the essential role of emotional self-regulation and the need for adaptive strategies to manage affective experiences effectively. 2.2. Skills L.O.2.2.1. The graduate manages challenges, disruptions, and changes and recovers from setbacks and adversity. L.O.2.2.2. The graduate identifies difficult moments and shows readiness and ability to accept and manage challenges as opportunities for personal and professional growth. 2.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.2.3.1. The graduate demonstrates responsibility and maturity in handling high-pressure situations. L.O.2.3.2. The graduate recognizes when stress may become overwhelming and prepares to address such moments with strategy and resilience. CT3. Works in teams Learning Outcomes 3.1. Knowledge L.O.3.1.1. The graduate understands and applies appropriate methods of collaboration and communication to contribute constructively to collective activity. L.O.3.1.2. The graduate knows models of support and collaboration with colleagues within group activities, contributing to the achievement of shared goals. 3.2. Skills L.O.3.2.1. The graduate is able to work confidently within a group, with each member fulfilling their role for the benefit of the whole. L.O.3.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to support team members through effective collaboration within a shared project. 3.3. 7. Course objectives (resulting from the specific competences to be acquired)

7.1 General course objective	To develop competencies for achieving performance in the arts and to promote the idea of lifelong acquisition of complementary skills beyond initial training. To consolidate and refine the solo singer's/instrumentalist's ability to relate to and interact with the accompanist, in order to create unified, expressive performances with aesthetic value. To prepare and train future performers (soloists, orchestral and chamber musicians) and pedagogues.
7.2 Specific objectives	Knowledge, understanding, and application of methods, theories, and practical concepts to accurately determine the relationship between theory and practice for achieving performance in interpretation. Application and transfer of conceptual, technical, and interpretative skills, as well as problem-solving, aimed at achieving performance in interpretation. Critical reflection and the ability to evaluate concrete situations in the form of reasoned judgments.

7. Course objectives (resulting from the specific competences to be acquired)

7.1 General course objective	Development and refinement of artistic and technical skills through diverse performance activities: solo recitals, chamber ensembles, and symphonic orchestra. Integration of students into complex musical ensembles to prepare them professionally for artistic activity at national and international levels. Formation of study discipline, team spirit, and the ability to collaborate within a professional artistic context. Preparation of students for public performances in various settings, including recitals, chamber concerts, and symphonic concerts. Development of the ability to analyze and self-evaluate one's performance through continuous feedback and critical reflection on personal achievements.
7.2 Specific objectives	Instrumental Recital: Acquiring the ability to prepare and perform a complete solo program, demonstrating technical and expressive maturity. Refinement of musical memory and individual interpretation at a professional level. Chamber Music: Development of collaborative skills within a small ensemble, respecting roles and the balance of the group's sound. Improvement of nonverbal communication and active listening skills in chamber ensembles. Symphonic Orchestra: Familiarization with basic orchestral repertoire and integration into the activities of a student symphony orchestra. Active participation in sectional and full rehearsals, following the conductor's instructions and contributing to ensemble cohesion. Preparation of a final symphonic concert, emphasizing professionalism, synchronization, and artistic expressiveness. Personal and Professional Development: Cultivation of artistic spirit and professional responsibility through regular public performances. Enhancement of the ability to manage stage emotions and performance-related stress. Formation of transferable skills useful in pedagogical and managerial activities within the musical field.

Performs live. Performs in front of a live audience. Learning Outcomes 3.1. Knowledge L.O.3.1.1. The graduate has an in-depth understanding of the requirements of live performance and the modalities of stage presentation. L.O.3.1.2. The graduate demonstrates knowledge of how to communicate artistic expression on stage, including the use of nonverbal language. L.O.3.1.3. The graduate masters techniques for managing individual study in order to overcome stage fright. 3.2. Skills L.O.3.2.1. The graduate demonstrates advanced live performance skills, captivating audiences and conveying emotion through music. L.O.3.2.2. The graduate easily adapts to various live performance situations, successfully managing challenges and the unpredictability of artistic settings. L.O.3.2.3. The graduate masters stage-related emotions, effectively managing stage fright in front of an audience. 3.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.3.3.1. The graduate presents personal musical interpretations during recitals and performances, captivating the audience and conveying emotion. L.O.3.3.2. The graduate confidently expresses personal artistic messages, providing memorable artistic experiences. L.O.3.3.3. The graduate demonstrates a strong and charismatic stage presence, creating emotional connections with the audience.

Professional competences	CP4. Strives for excellence in musical performance. Continuously engages in perfecting their own instrumental interpretation. Learning Outcomes 4.1. Knowledge L.O.4.1.1. The graduate collaborates with other performers to produce comparative musical interpretations. L.O.4.1.2. The graduate analyzes and understands various artistic approaches and perspectives, developing their own interpretative vision. 4.2. Skills L.O.4.2.1. The graduate participates in music competitions and contests to demonstrate skills and gain professional recognition. L.O.4.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to grow as an artist by seeking feedback and guidance from music experts. L.O.4.2.3. The graduate develops abilities to convey emotions and artistic messages through consistent participation in concerts and auditions. 4.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.4.3.1. The graduate assumes responsibility for choosing the repertoire they perform on stage. L.O.4.3.2. The graduate adapts to diverse musical and artistic contexts by applying knowledge of musical styles, forms, and traditions to shape their own interpretative vision. L.O.4.3.3. The graduate studies responsibly, respecting all musical and technical requirements to refine their musical interpretation. CP5. Analyzes their own artistic performance. Understands, analyzes, and describes their own performance. Contextualizes their work within one or multiple styles, trends, and evolutions. Evaluates their own work during rehearsals and performances. Learning Outcomes 5.1. Knowledge L.O.5.1.1. The graduate masters knowledge related to the characteristics of various musical styles and applies them in their own interpretation. L.O.5.1.2. The graduate identifies different technical and interpretative approaches used by performers and formulates personal musical perspectives. 5.2. Skills L.O.5.2.1. The graduate critically understands and analyzes their own performance, identifying strengths and areas for improvement. L.O.5.2.2. The graduate reflects on and develops self-evaluation skills, learning from past artistic experiences to progress as a performing musician. L.O.5.2.3. The graduate explores various recording and analysis techniques to obtain an objective perspective on the quality and expressiveness of their performance. 5.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L..5.3.1. The graduate constantly consults and studies relevant informational sources within the musical-artistic field in order to continually refine their technical and interpretative outlook. L.O.5.3.2. The graduate continuously explores new, efficient study strategies to increase performance level.

Professional competences	CP6. Identifies characteristics of music. Identifies elementary, structural, and stylistic characteristics of music from different periods and cultures. Learning Outcomes 6.1. Knowledge L.O.6.1.1. The graduate comparatively evaluates musical excerpts belonging to different genres, styles, or expressive contexts, supporting observations with concrete elements of musical discourse. L.O.6.1.2. The graduate identifies and describes defining aspects of musical parameters, highlighting their role in the construction and interpretation of a musical work. L.O.6.1.3. The graduate classifies musical works based on the recognition of defining traits of genres and stylistic features of different musical eras. 6.2. Skills L.O.6.2.1. The graduate correlates the musical text with its sonic configuration. L.O.6.2.2. The graduate establishes connections between writing techniques and musical morphology, syntax, and architecture. L.O.6.2.3. The graduate evaluates the expressiveness of a musical excerpt by rigorously applying specific musical criteria such as phrasing, articulation, dynamics, and timbre. 6.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.6.3.1. The graduate actively participates in diverse artistic and social environments, using expertise in musical styles, forms, and traditions to refine and sustain artistic practices. L.O.6.3.2. The graduate adopts a responsible attitude when formulating and justifying individual viewpoints in musical analysis, supporting them with rigorous argumentation.

Transversal Competences	CT1. Thinks creatively Learning Outcomes 1.1. Knowledge L.O.1.1.1. The graduate recognizes the importance of creativity in the development and expression of artistic practice. L.O.1.1.2. The graduate identifies and applies various methods to optimize the creative process in artistic contexts. 1.2. Skills L.O.1.2.1. The graduate can apply conceptual working methods and strategies, focusing on understanding and developing the theoretical framework of musical principles. L.O.1.2.2. The graduate is able to design, improvise and implement creative and innovative approaches for solving complex problems. 1.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.1.3.1. The graduate develops innovative concepts by generating new ideas and creatively integrating existing ones. L.O.1.3.2. The graduate supports the manifestation of creative thinking by encouraging originality, flexibility, and the ability to generate new ideas.

Transversal Competences	CT2. Copes with stress Learning Outcomes 2.1. Knowledge L.O.2.1.1. The graduate identifies and uses appropriate stress-management techniques to maintain emotional balance in demanding situations. L.O.2.1.2. The graduate understands the essential role of emotional self-regulation and the need for adaptive strategies to manage affective experiences effectively. 2.2. Skills L.O.2.2.1. The graduate manages challenges, disruptions, and changes and recovers from setbacks and adversity. L.O.2.2.2. The graduate identifies difficult moments and shows readiness and ability to accept and manage challenges as opportunities for personal and professional growth. 2.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.2.3.1. The graduate demonstrates responsibility and maturity in handling high-pressure situations. L.O.2.3.2. The graduate recognizes when stress may become overwhelming and prepares to address such moments with strategy and resilience. CT3. Works in teams Learning Outcomes 3.1. Knowledge L.O.3.1.1. The graduate understands and applies appropriate methods of collaboration and communication to contribute constructively to collective activity. L.O.3.1.2. The graduate knows models of support and collaboration with colleagues within group activities, contributing to the achievement of shared goals. 3.2. Skills L.O.3.2.1. The graduate is able to work confidently within a group, with each member fulfilling their role for the benefit of the whole. L.O.3.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to support team members through effective collaboration within a shared project. 3.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.3.3.1. The graduate shows openness and responsibility in adopting innovative ideas that strengthen and support team success. L.O.3.3.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to recognize and take responsibility for failure in crisis situations, promoting transparency and cooperation within the team. CT4. Appreciates the diversity of cultural and artistic expressions Learning Outcomes 4.1. Knowledge L.O.4.1.1. The graduate recognizes and understands the diversity of cultural expression in various socio-cultural contexts. L.O.4.1.2. The graduate possesses aesthetic sensitivity and the ability to perceive and appreciate artistic expressions. 4.2. Skills LO 4.2.1. The graduate demonstrates the ability to critically evaluate and interpret various forms of artistic expression. LO 4.2.2. The graduate shows aesthetic sensitivity, interest, and openness toward artistic expressions from diverse cultural backgrounds.

Transversal Competences	4.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.4.3.1. The graduate responsibly expresses and justifies opinions and evaluations related to various artistic cultures, assuming responsibility for the judgments made. L.O.4.3.2. The graduate produces individual interpretations based on the understanding and appreciation of cultural differences.

7. Course objectives (resulting from the specific competences to be acquired)

7.1 General course objective	Development of skills specific to performing in an ensemble.
7.2 Specific objectives	Ability to listen and perform together with the ensemble; Ability to adapt to the complexity of ensemble work.

8. Content

8.1 Course	Teaching methods	Number of hours	Remarks
Systematic construction of the repertoire through selective choice, based on knowledge of valuable repertoire performed in chamber recitals at national and international level, within recitals and masterclasses delivered by renowned performers and professors, as well as at festivals, competitions and chamber music workshops, and through inter-university and interdisciplinary exchanges in the country and abroad.	Interactive lecture, exposition, explanation, heuristic dialogue, demonstration, problem-based learning, case study, individual and collective reflection, brainstorming, observation, algorithmic instruction, simulation, exercise, case study, demonstration, laboratory experiment, inquiry- and discovery-based learning, project work, and investigation.	14	The necessity of individual study.

6. Specific competences and learning outcomes

Professional competences	CP2. Reads musical scores. Reads musical scores during rehearsals and live performances. Learning Outcomes 2.1. Knowledge LO 2.1.1. The graduate knows musical symbols within the notation systems of various stylistic periods (Baroque, contemporary, etc.). LO 2.1.2. The graduate easily reads complex scores in real time, applying knowledge of music theory and solfège. LO 2.1.3. The graduate correlates musical notation with instrumental interpretative elements. 2.2. Skills L.O.2.2.1. The graduate develops advanced score-reading skills, ensuring a deep understanding of musical notation and the composer's instructions. L.O.2.2.2. The graduate masters sight-reading, accurately following rhythm, intonation, interpretation, and stylistic context. 2.3. Responsibility and Autonomy LO 2.3.1. The graduate performs at rehearsals and concerts by carefully following the score, ensuring proper integration into the ensemble or orchestra. L.O.2.3.2. The graduate assumes their interpretative vision following the reading of the musical score. L.O.2.3.3. The graduate uses musical scores responsibly, respecting dynamic markings and interpretative indications provided by the composer. CP3. Performs live. Performs in front of a live audience. Learning Outcomes 3.1. Knowledge L.O.3.1.1. The graduate has an in-depth understanding of the requirements of live performance and the modalities of stage presentation. L.O.3.1.2. The graduate demonstrates knowledge of how to communicate artistic expression on stage, including the use of nonverbal language. L.O.3.1.3. The graduate masters techniques for managing individual study in order to overcome stage fright. 3.2. Skills L.O.3.2.1. The graduate demonstrates advanced live performance skills, captivating audiences and conveying emotion through music. L.O.3.2.2. The graduate easily adapts to various live performance situations, successfully managing challenges and the unpredictability of artistic settings. L.O.3.2.3. The graduate masters stage-related emotions, effectively managing stage fright in front of an audience. 3.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.3.3.1. The graduate presents personal musical interpretations during recitals and performances, captivating the audience and conveying emotion. L.O.3.3.2. The graduate confidently expresses personal artistic messages, providing memorable artistic experiences. L.O.3.3.3. The graduate demonstrates a strong and charismatic stage presence, creating emotional connections with the audience.

Professional competences	CP4. Strives for excellence in musical performance. Continuously engages in perfecting their own instrumental interpretation. Learning Outcomes 4.1. Knowledge L.O.4.1.1. The graduate collaborates with other performers to produce comparative musical interpretations. L.O.4.1.2. The graduate analyzes and understands various artistic approaches and perspectives, developing their own interpretative vision. 4.2. Skills L.O.4.2.1. The graduate participates in music competitions and contests to demonstrate skills and gain professional recognition. L.O.4.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to grow as an artist by seeking feedback and guidance from music experts. L.O.4.2.3. The graduate develops abilities to convey emotions and artistic messages through consistent participation in concerts and auditions. 4.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.4.3.1. The graduate assumes responsibility for choosing the repertoire they perform on stage. L.O.4.3.2. The graduate adapts to diverse musical and artistic contexts by applying knowledge of musical styles, forms, and traditions to shape their own interpretative vision. L.O.4.3.3. The graduate studies responsibly, respecting all musical and technical requirements to refine their musical interpretation. CP5. Analyzes their own artistic performance. Understands, analyzes, and describes their own performance. Contextualizes their work within one or multiple styles, trends, and evolutions. Evaluates their own work during rehearsals and performances. Learning Outcomes 5.1. Knowledge L.O.5.1.1. The graduate masters knowledge related to the characteristics of various musical styles and applies them in their own interpretation. L.O.5.1.2. The graduate identifies different technical and interpretative approaches used by performers and formulates personal musical perspectives. 5.2. Skills L.O.5.2.1. The graduate critically understands and analyzes their own performance, identifying strengths and areas for improvement. L.O.5.2.2. The graduate reflects on and develops self-evaluation skills, learning from past artistic experiences to progress as a performing musician. L.O.5.2.3. The graduate explores various recording and analysis techniques to obtain an objective perspective on the quality and expressiveness of their performance. 5.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L..5.3.1. The graduate constantly consults and studies relevant informational sources within the musical-artistic field in order to continually refine their technical and interpretative outlook. L.O.5.3.2. The graduate continuously explores new, efficient study strategies to increase performance level.

Professional competences	CP6. Identifies characteristics of music. Identifies elementary, structural, and stylistic characteristics of music from different periods and cultures. Learning Outcomes 6.1. Knowledge L.O.6.1.1. The graduate comparatively evaluates musical excerpts belonging to different genres, styles, or expressive contexts, supporting observations with concrete elements of musical discourse. L.O.6.1.2. The graduate identifies and describes defining aspects of musical parameters, highlighting their role in the construction and interpretation of a musical work. L.O.6.1.3. The graduate classifies musical works based on the recognition of defining traits of genres and stylistic features of different musical eras. 6.2. Skills L.O.6.2.1. The graduate correlates the musical text with its sonic configuration. L.O.6.2.2. The graduate establishes connections between writing techniques and musical morphology, syntax, and architecture. L.O.6.2.3. The graduate evaluates the expressiveness of a musical excerpt by rigorously applying specific musical criteria such as phrasing, articulation, dynamics, and timbre. 6.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.6.3.1. The graduate actively participates in diverse artistic and social environments, using expertise in musical styles, forms, and traditions to refine and sustain artistic practices. L.O.6.3.2. The graduate adopts a responsible attitude when formulating and justifying individual viewpoints in musical analysis, supporting them with rigorous argumentation.

Transversal Competences	CT1. Thinks creatively Learning Outcomes 1.1. Knowledge L.O.1.1.1. The graduate recognizes the importance of creativity in the development and expression of artistic practice. L.O.1.1.2. The graduate identifies and applies various methods to optimize the creative process in artistic contexts. 1.2. Skills L.O.1.2.1. The graduate can apply conceptual working methods and strategies, focusing on understanding and developing the theoretical framework of musical principles. L.O.1.2.2. The graduate is able to design, improvise and implement creative and innovative approaches for solving complex problems. 1.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.1.3.1. The graduate develops innovative concepts by generating new ideas and creatively integrating existing ones. L.O.1.3.2. The graduate supports the manifestation of creative thinking by encouraging originality, flexibility, and the ability to generate new ideas.

Transversal Competences	CT2. Copes with stress Learning Outcomes 2.1. Knowledge L.O.2.1.1. The graduate identifies and uses appropriate stress-management techniques to maintain emotional balance in demanding situations. L.O.2.1.2. The graduate understands the essential role of emotional self-regulation and the need for adaptive strategies to manage affective experiences effectively. 2.2. Skills L.O.2.2.1. The graduate manages challenges, disruptions, and changes and recovers from setbacks and adversity. L.O.2.2.2. The graduate identifies difficult moments and shows readiness and ability to accept and manage challenges as opportunities for personal and professional growth. 2.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.2.3.1. The graduate demonstrates responsibility and maturity in handling high-pressure situations. L.O.2.3.2. The graduate recognizes when stress may become overwhelming and prepares to address such moments with strategy and resilience. CT3. Works in teams Learning Outcomes 3.1. Knowledge L.O.3.1.1. The graduate understands and applies appropriate methods of collaboration and communication to contribute constructively to collective activity. L.O.3.1.2. The graduate knows models of support and collaboration with colleagues within group activities, contributing to the achievement of shared goals. 3.2. Skills L.O.3.2.1. The graduate is able to work confidently within a group, with each member fulfilling their role for the benefit of the whole. L.O.3.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to support team members through effective collaboration within a shared project. 3.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.3.3.1. The graduate shows openness and responsibility in adopting innovative ideas that strengthen and support team success. L.O.3.3.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to recognize and take responsibility for failure in crisis situations, promoting transparency and cooperation within the team. CT4. Appreciates the diversity of cultural and artistic expressions Learning Outcomes 4.1. Knowledge L.O.4.1.1. The graduate recognizes and understands the diversity of cultural expression in various socio-cultural contexts. L.O.4.1.2. The graduate possesses aesthetic sensitivity and the ability to perceive and appreciate artistic expressions. 4.2. Skills LO 4.2.1. The graduate demonstrates the ability to critically evaluate and interpret various forms of artistic expression. LO 4.2.2. The graduate shows aesthetic sensitivity, interest, and openness toward artistic expressions from diverse cultural backgrounds.

Transversal Competences	4.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.4.3.1. The graduate responsibly expresses and justifies opinions and evaluations related to various artistic cultures, assuming responsibility for the judgments made. L.O.4.3.2. The graduate produces individual interpretations based on the understanding and appreciation of cultural differences.

7. Course objectives (resulting from the specific competences to be acquired)

7.1 General course objective	Knowledge and application of essential concepts belonging to musical styles [including rhythmic, melodic, harmonic, and expressive elements], and the correlation and understanding of the individual roles of each musician within the ensemble.
7.2 Specific objectives	Achievement of advanced qualities of ensemble cohesion and interpretative synchronization when performing on historical instruments. Refinement of expressive qualities and stylistic alignment with the repertoire studied. Engagement with a diverse repertoire, organized progressively and historically, based on the evolution of musical composition styles. Advanced development of knowledge acquired during individual instrumental and chamber music lessons. Integration of performers into instrumental ensembles and attainment of high-level performance through participation in festivals, competitions, recitals, and audio-video recordings. Addressing and clarifying specific issues of instrumental technique and sound production, including articulation diversity and timbre, specific to historical instruments.

4. Prerequisites (if applicable)

4.1 curriculum-related	• Updating knowledge in music, musical aesthetics, and music history.
4.2 competences-related	• Description of the fundamental notions that influence human emotional states.

5. Conditions (if applicable)

5.1 for course development	• Classroom equipped with piano and audio playback and analysis equipment (computer). Computer laboratory equipped with a video projector and internet connection.
5.2 for seminar/ laboratory/ project development	• Classroom equipped with piano and audio playback and analysis equipment (computer). Computer laboratory equipped with a video projector and internet connection.

6. Specific competences and learning outcomes

Professional competences	CP1. Studies music. Studies original musical works to become familiar with music theory and music history. Learning Outcomes 1.1. Knowledge L.O.1.1.1. The graduate deepens fundamental concepts related to music theory, music history, and musical forms, and applies them in instrumental performance. L.O.1.1.2. The graduate demonstrates a thorough understanding of the elements of musical language, within the context of different stylistic periods. L.O.1.1.3. The graduate masters musical forms and the structural elements of the musical text, highlighting their specific features in performance. 1.2. Skills L.O.1.2.1. The graduate optimizes individual study in preparation for performing instrumental repertoire. L.O.1.2.2. The graduate develops critical listening and evaluation skills in order to gain a comprehensive perception of cultural and artistic diversity. L.O.1.2.3. The graduate achieves effective correlation between the musical text and its technical realization, considering the stylistic, cultural, and artistic diversity of the musical work. 1.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.1.3.1. The graduate assumes their own interpretative vision of instrumental works on stage. L.O.1.3.2. The graduate independently organizes individual study and repertoire in order to achieve performance excellence. CP5. Analyzes their own artistic performance. Understands, analyzes, and describes their own performance. Contextualizes their work within one or multiple styles, trends, and evolutions. Evaluates their own work during rehearsals and performances. Learning Outcomes 5.1. Knowledge L.O.5.1.1. The graduate masters knowledge related to the characteristics of various musical styles and applies them in their own interpretation. L.O.5.1.2. The graduate identifies different technical and interpretative approaches used by performers and formulates personal musical perspectives. 5.2. Skills L.O.5.2.1. The graduate critically understands and analyzes their own performance, identifying strengths and areas for improvement. L.O.5.2.2. The graduate reflects on and develops self-evaluation skills, learning from past artistic experiences to progress as a performing musician. L.O.5.2.3. The graduate explores various recording and analysis techniques to obtain an objective perspective on the quality and expressiveness of their performance. 5.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L..5.3.1. The graduate constantly consults and studies relevant informational sources within the musical-artistic field in order to continually refine their technical and interpretative outlook. L.O.5.3.2. The graduate continuously explores new, efficient study strategies to increase performance level.

Professional competences	CP6. Identifies characteristics of music. Identifies elementary, structural, and stylistic characteristics of music from different periods and cultures. Learning Outcomes 6.1. Knowledge L.O.6.1.1. The graduate comparatively evaluates musical excerpts belonging to different genres, styles, or expressive contexts, supporting observations with concrete elements of musical discourse. L.O.6.1.2. The graduate identifies and describes defining aspects of musical parameters, highlighting their role in the construction and interpretation of a musical work. L.O.6.1.3. The graduate classifies musical works based on the recognition of defining traits of genres and stylistic features of different musical eras. 6.2. Skills L.O.6.2.1. The graduate correlates the musical text with its sonic configuration. L.O.6.2.2. The graduate establishes connections between writing techniques and musical morphology, syntax, and architecture. L.O.6.2.3. The graduate evaluates the expressiveness of a musical excerpt by rigorously applying specific musical criteria such as phrasing, articulation, dynamics, and timbre. 6.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.6.3.1. The graduate actively participates in diverse artistic and social environments, using expertise in musical styles, forms, and traditions to refine and sustain artistic practices. L.O.6.3.2. The graduate adopts a responsible attitude when formulating and justifying individual viewpoints in musical analysis, supporting them with rigorous argumentation.

Transversal Competences	CT1. Thinks creatively Learning Outcomes 1.1. Knowledge L.O.1.1.1. The graduate recognizes the importance of creativity in the development and expression of artistic practice. L.O.1.1.2. The graduate identifies and applies various methods to optimize the creative process in artistic contexts. 1.2. Skills L.O.1.2.1. The graduate can apply conceptual working methods and strategies, focusing on understanding and developing the theoretical framework of musical principles. L.O.1.2.2. The graduate is able to design, improvise and implement creative and innovative approaches for solving complex problems. 1.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.1.3.1. The graduate develops innovative concepts by generating new ideas and creatively integrating existing ones. L.O.1.3.2. The graduate supports the manifestation of creative thinking by encouraging originality, flexibility, and the ability to generate new ideas. CT2. Copes with stress Learning Outcomes 2.1. Knowledge L.O.2.1.1. The graduate identifies and uses appropriate stress-management techniques to maintain emotional balance in demanding situations. L.O.2.1.2. The graduate understands the essential role of emotional self-regulation and the need for adaptive strategies to manage affective experiences effectively. 2.2. Skills L.O.2.2.1. The graduate manages challenges, disruptions, and changes and recovers from setbacks and adversity. L.O.2.2.2. The graduate identifies difficult moments and shows readiness and ability to accept and manage challenges as opportunities for personal and professional growth. 2.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.2.3.1. The graduate demonstrates responsibility and maturity in handling high-pressure situations. L.O.2.3.2. The graduate recognizes when stress may become overwhelming and prepares to address such moments with strategy and resilience.

Transversal Competences	CT3. Works in teams Learning Outcomes 3.1. Knowledge L.O.3.1.1. The graduate understands and applies appropriate methods of collaboration and communication to contribute constructively to collective activity. L.O.3.1.2. The graduate knows models of support and collaboration with colleagues within group activities, contributing to the achievement of shared goals. 3.2. Skills L.O.3.2.1. The graduate is able to work confidently within a group, with each member fulfilling their role for the benefit of the whole. L.O.3.2.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to support team members through effective collaboration within a shared project. 3.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.3.3.1. The graduate shows openness and responsibility in adopting innovative ideas that strengthen and support team success. L.O.3.3.2. The graduate demonstrates the ability to recognize and take responsibility for failure in crisis situations, promoting transparency and cooperation within the team. CT4. Appreciates the diversity of cultural and artistic expressions Learning Outcomes 4.1. Knowledge L.O.4.1.1. The graduate recognizes and understands the diversity of cultural expression in various socio-cultural contexts. L.O.4.1.2. The graduate possesses aesthetic sensitivity and the ability to perceive and appreciate artistic expressions. 4.2. Skills LO 4.2.1. The graduate demonstrates the ability to critically evaluate and interpret various forms of artistic expression. LO 4.2.2. The graduate shows aesthetic sensitivity, interest, and openness toward artistic expressions from diverse cultural backgrounds. 4.3. Responsibility and Autonomy L.O.4.3.1. The graduate responsibly expresses and justifies opinions and evaluations related to various artistic cultures, assuming responsibility for the judgments made. L.O.4.3.2. The graduate produces individual interpretations based on the understanding and appreciation of cultural differences.

7. Course objectives (resulting from the specific competences to be acquired)

7.1 General course objective	Semantic and morphological analysis of major masterpieces of musical discourse within the classical, Romantic, and modern art-music repertoire.
7.2 Specific objectives	Students should be able to analyze musical masterpieces using the methods of musical semantics and to interpret their meaning. Students should be able to analyze and interpret various works from a morphological and syntactic perspective, with regard to compositional techniques and their semantic content. Students should be able to analyze the musical phenomenon within the semantic context of stylistic periods, through knowledge of musical styles, the languages that characterize them, as well as the relevant genres, composers, and representative works.

8. Content

8.1 Course	Teaching methods	Number of hours	Remarks
1. Semantics – definition, methods, principles. Sign – definition, methods, principles.	Lecture, analysis, comparison.	2
2. Symbol, meaning, and musical referent. Ethos and expression.	Lecture, analysis, comparison.	2
3. Elements of musical hermeneutics, semiotics, rhetoric, and stylistics – their connection with musical semantics.	Lecture, analysis, comparison.	2
4. Semantics in musical interpretation and analysis. Modern techniques of musical analysis (with a semantic focus) in the 20th century.	Lecture, analysis, comparison.	2
5. Communication theory and information theory – musical implications.	Lecture, analysis, comparison.	2
6. Language, text, expression, poeticity.	Lecture, analysis, comparison.	2
7. Musical ontology and phenomenology.	Lecture, analysis, comparison.	2

9. Correlation of course content with the demands of the labour market (epistemic communities, professional associations, potential employers in the field of study)

Semantic analyses of musical works are required in all musical fields in which the student or future graduate will be active, as they contribute significantly to understanding musical activity (both performance-related and pedagogical).

10. Evaluation

Activity type	10.1 Evaluation criteria	10.2 Evaluation methods	10.3 Percentage of the final grade
10.4 Course	The degree of knowledge of the assimilated theoretical concepts. The degree of correlation with prior knowledge in the field and in related fields.	Written exam	40% 40%
10.5 Seminar/ laboratory/ project	The depth of analytical study of the works proposed for examination. The complexity of analyses performed on the works selected by the student.	Assessment of seminar activity Written project and oral presentation	10% 10%
10.6 Minimal performance standard
- Presentation and illustration of the main musical styles, as exemplified in the relevant works of their leading figures. - Achieving a passing grade (5).

This course outline was certified in the Department Board meeting on 16/09/2005 and approved in the Faculty Board meeting on 16/09/2005.
