How to apply?

The admission process consists of two rounds:

Round one (90%): Candidates must perform a recital (at least 20 minutes), comprising 2 or 3 works of their choice, each selected from a different one of the following five (5) stylistic periods: pre-Classical, Classical, Romantic, Modern, and Romanian. For the harpsichord, the stylistic categories are: Renaissance, Early Baroque, Late Baroque, Classical, and 20th-century music.

NOTE: All works must be performed from memory, with the exception of harpsichord works and works from the modern or contemporary repertoire composed after 1950, which may be performed with the score.

Round two (10%): Interview - an oral presentation in english, outlining the candidate's motivation for choosing the Master's degree programme, including the structure of the proposed research topic and the candidate's personal views and assessments.

The minimum passing grade is 6 out of 10.

The schedule for the exam will be posted on the Faculty of Music website.
